

child, they had made their affluent fortune subservient to her best interest. To give her the accomplishments of a polite education had been their principal care, she had contracted an ardent love for them, which never will be obliterated. Their parting was an affecting scene of tears.

MR. Farnsworth, my only fellow prisoner whose return I have not mentioned, came home a little before.

THUS, by the goodness of Providence, we all returned in the course of six painful years, to the place from whence we were taken. The long period of our captivity, and the severity of our sufferings, will be called uncommon and unprecedented. But we even found some friends to pity, among our most persecuting enemies; and from the various shapes, in which mankind appeared, we learned ma-
