well pleased with the lighting effect of this room. The billiard room is ample large enough to contain two American and one English table. There are also parlor sleeping rooms and attendants' rooms.

The plans outlined for the new library which the Club will have embrace a collection of books that will surpass anything else at present available in Canada.

The Club will have the additional advantage of a main entrance.

Mr. L. J. Street gave a detailed estimate of expenses that would be incurred and funds obtainable on the part of a new Club. The report was very satisfactory and seemed to show that the Club could more than meet expenses even the first year. The rent for the Club rooms will be $335 per month with an additional $25 per month if the 12-foot extension to the dining-room is taken. This will include all taxes with exception of the business tax. A lease may be taken, it is understood, for six months or one year, with right of renewal for two years. The rooms will be ready by January, 1911. There are 5,305 square feet of floor space, excluding lavatory room, and the rental will amount to about 73 cents per square foot. Should additional space be needed it is understood that an adjoining room 70 x 80 feet could be obtained.

The sentiment of the meeting was very favorable to the proposition as a whole. A board of directors of representative men from the different professions which will be represented in the new Club, was elected at this meeting. The directors elected are: Messrs. Robt. A. Baldwin, S. Percy Biggs, W. A. Bucke, C. M. Canniff, Willis Chipman, John Galbraith, W. A. Hare, Chas. H. Heys, E. A. James, J. G. Sing, C. B. Smith, L. J. Street, J. B. Tyrrell, A. J. Van Nostrand, Clarence R. Young.

A meeting of the directors has since been held, at which time they elected their officers. Until February, when the annual meeting will be held, the following will serve as officers: President, C. M. Canniff; first vice-president, Willis Chipman; second vice-president, A. J. Van Nostrand; treasurer, L. J. Street; secretary, R. B. Wolsey.
