

STALLIONS IN THE SPORTING TIMES.

Our columns this week contain the announcement of the well-bred trotting stallion MATT CAMERON, who will make the season at the Terminus, Queen St. west, Toronto. He is a beautiful bay and his Hambletonian-Royal George breeding will commend him to the attention of a large number of breeders. Being only four years old, he has developed speed, that, if the assurance of his owner may be relied on, may be termed remarkable. Although out of shape at Hamilton last year, he made a race of the Boyle Colt stake, and it was the intention to keep him for track purposes this year, but it was decided to trot him in the SPORTING TIMES Stallion Race next September, and to comply with the conditions of entry he has been placed in the harem.

THE TORONTO ROWING CLUB.

The Toronto Rowing club held its twelfth annual meeting last Thursday evening, a large number of members being present. Mr. Angus Morrison occupied the chair. The annual reports and statements were submitted, and showed the society to be in a prosperous condition. A large number of new members were elected, and an interesting discussion on rowing matters developed a plan for a regatta on a large scale during the season. The following gentlemen were elected officers for the present year:—President, Mr. Angus Morrison, Mayor; Vice-Presidents, Messrs. R. W. Elliott and P. Birchall; Treasurer, Mr. R. D. Malcolm; Captain, Mr. J. E. Ellis; Committee, Messrs. J. R. Hay, W. Arthur, C. Callaghan, Alex. Lee, G. P. Elliott, S. Beatty, and V. Sankey. The premises of the club have been enlarged and improved, and a number of new boats are being built for the society by Mr. George Warren, of this city.

A. D. Shaw, United States consul at Toronto, was elected an honorary member of the Livingston club, as was also Major H. V. Colt, of Genesee.

TO THOMAS LOUDON.

To the Editor of the Sporting Times:

SIR,—In answer to Thos. Loudon's challenge in your last issue, I wish to state, I will meet him any time at your office on one hour's notice, to name a referee and stakeholder, and make a match to row against him for $100 or as much more as he likes to put up; the distance to be one mile, and I will bet half the stakes I beat him the first half mile, and the balance of the stakes I win the race. Now, if Mr. Loudon means business, let him come forward.

Yours,
EDWARD HANLAN,
Champion Sculler of Ontario.

Cricket.

A meeting of the London Cricket club was held at the Revere House. Mr. B. Bayly presided, and Mr. R. M. Meredith acted as secretary. The following officers were elected: President, Hon. John Carling; Vice-Presidents, F. A. Despard, John Brown, R. Bayly; Secretary and Treasurer, R. M. Meredith; Committee, James McMahon, J. D. Clarke, Whittaker and McConkey. The Park Committee are going to give the club the use of part of the ground, and practice will be commenced at once.

At a meeting of the Pickwick Cricket club, held at the City Hotel, London, the following officers were elected: President, Col. Walker; 1st Vice-President, H. D. Long, Esq.; 2nd Vice-President, D. Macmillan, M. P.; Captain, W. Thompson; Secretary and Treasurer, A. Gillan; Managing Committee, N. Wilson, Thos. Parke, W. Rivers.

The St. Jean Baptiste club, of Three Rivers, elected the following officers for the current year:—Arthur Olivier, President; Zephirin Duplessis, Vice-President; Josephs Harrois, Secretary; Isidore Pothier, Hector Gauthier, Jacques Lariviere, Arthur Rochefort and Ad. Remillard, Committee.

Drummers, artists, were immense, and walked right into the good graces of the audience. Mlle. Laurent and the ballet came in for their share of applause; while Harris and Carroll, the "mokes," had a good reception, which they deserved. This Friday evening an entire change of the variety programme will be made, and several fresh scenes, including a new transformation, will be introduced. A family matinee at reduced rates will be given on Saturday.

Mr. E. A. Sothorn, "Lord Dundreary," is announced for the Royal Opera House on the 19th and 20th. He will probably produce Our American Cousin and David Garrick.

Mr. Sage Richardson is one of the few men who has had the pleasure of reading his own obituary. One of the Rochester, N. Y., papers gave him the benefit of a first-class one last week, closing with testimony to his ability as an actor and comedian, and describing his performance as inimitable. Notwithstanding his premature demise, Sage is playing an engagement this week at Mrs. Morrison's Grand Opera House.

GENERAL.

Buffalo correspondence May 9.—There is nothing at the Academy of Music this week. Commencing next Monday a season of five nights of German Opera will be inaugurated by the Buffalo Sangerbund, when Der Freischutz will be presented. Edwin Booth opens a weeks engagement on the 29th. Belloc will not favor us with her presence owing to illness. Jno. T. Raymond, as Col. Sellers, holds forth at St. James' Hall on the 19th and 20th. The following are the new arrivals at the Adelphi: The Sawyers family of bell-ringers, in their operatic selections; Ada Sanborn, Edwin Barnes, Miss Maggie Barnes, Horace Bent, M. Heppard and J. O. Hall.

Our Hamilton correspondence reports nothing new. Sothorn opens at Mechanics' Hall on the 18th in David Garrick.

The Academy of Music, Montreal, is running the Octoroon, and has in rehearsal the Big Bonanza. Miss Ida Savory is announced for an early appearance.

McDowell's Shaugbraun Company from Montreal are at Gowan's Opera House. Ottawa, May 11th and 12th. They produce The Geneva Cross and Rose Michel.
