

SUNDAY-SCHOOL LESSONS, SECOND QUARTER.

LESSON 11.

PAUL'S ADVICE TO TIMOTHY.

JUNE 13.

2. Timothy 1. 1-7; 3. 14-17.

GOLDEN TEXT.—From a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation.—2 Tim. 3. 15.

MEMORY VERSES, 3. 14-17.—But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

And that from a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

To the folks at home: Please help the little folks to learn this lesson.

LESSON STORY.

A young man named Timothy came to Paul to learn about Jesus. He had been well brought up by a loving mother, who taught him the Scriptures from his childhood. Paul grew to love him very much, and when he became a disciple Paul took him travelling with him, together with Silas.

When Paul was a prisoner in Rome he wrote a letter to Timothy, whom he called his "beloved son." Our lesson is a part of this letter. You know how much a good father wants his son to do right in all things. Just so Paul felt toward Timothy. He loved him so much that he prayed for him a great deal, and urged him to use the gifts of God for God's glory. It is so easy to use his gifts for ourselves.

The Bible is God's own garden
Into which his children may go
To gather flowers of love and grace
That are blooming for all below.

LESSON QUESTIONS.

1. Who taught Timothy the Scriptures?

His mother and his grandmother.
