Sunday School Libraries

Send for Catalogue
-3,000 Titles

Having had long experience in the library business, and, therefore, being conversant with the books suitable to the different grades of the school, we feel satisfied that it will be to your interest to examine our lists before purchasing. Our policy in regard to Libraries is liberal, and such that any school can arrange to have a fresh selection of books sent on approval. If the amount required is stated, we will send on for examination an extra quantity, we paying freight on the return shipment. We solicit a reply, in the way of an order, feeling confident that we can best serve your wants.
