Johnson.

CHIEF JOHN-SMOKE JOHNSON, Sakayen-gwaraton,* b. cir. 1792, a Chief of the Six Nations, was one of a family distinguished as Chiefs and Warriors. He fought in 1812, and "led his dusky followers with so much skill and intrepidity as to elicit "high praise from the English commander." He was for many years Speaker of the Great Council of the Six Nations. He m. a dau. of Teyonhehkwen, one of the Hereditary Chiefs of the Okwaho or Wolf clan of the Kanienga or Mohawk Nation, and who was of a family who adopted the name of Martin, which was the name of a white girl who became the wife of one of them; and had issue,
