

The ordination to the priesthood of Rev. J. H. McDonald, '02, took place in St. Joseph's Church on Sunday, Nov. 11, his uncle, Archbishop Gauthier of Kingston, officiating. Father McDonald his first mass in St. Joseph's Church the next morning, and afterwards Mr. J. E. McNeill, '07, presented him with the following address on behalf of the students of the University :

To The Rev. J. H. McDonald,

Ottawa, Ontario.

Reverend and Dear Father,

On this most joyful day which marks the realization of all your hopes and aspirations, we, the students of your Alma Mater, desire to offer you our heartfelt congratulations on the sublime dignity to which you have been raised. That one of our number has been found worthy to ascend the Altar of God is an honor to our institution, and at the same time, an incentive to high aims and noble purposes for each and everyone of us. Your honored career, while within these walls, cannot but be a happy omen of success in the accomplishment of your grand and glorious vocation. We feel sure that at this most solemn moment of your life you will not forget those of us who are treading the path which you once tread, and that you will implore the Giver of all good gifts to grant us His grace that we too may successfully crown our college careers in the choice of the calling that He has ordained for us. Rest assured, dear Father, that you will go forth to fulfil the high and arduous duties of your sacred office accompanied by our most earnest prayers and our sincerest good wishes.

The Students of the University of Ottawa.

---