QUEEN'S COLLEGE.

The Eighteenth Session of Queen's College will begin on the first Wednesday of October (5th October, 1859), at which date all Intrants and regular Students in the Faculty of Arts are required to be present.

The Divinity Classes will be opened on the first Wednesday in November.

Candidates for matriculation, as regular Students of the first year, will undergo an examination before the College Senate in the first three books of the Aeneid of Virgil; the first three books of Caesar's Commentaries; Mair's Introduction; the Greek Grammar; the first book of Euclid; and Arithmetic, as far as Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, and the Extraction of Roots, inclusive.

The only charge are $4 for Matriculation fee $8 for each class (of one hour per diem) for the Session, to be paid on admission to the classes, and $4 additional in the Natural Philosophy Class, for expenses of Apparatus.

Each Student on entering must produce a certificate of Moral and Religious Character from the Minister of the Congregation to which he belongs.

Intrants becoming candidates for Scholarships, will be required, in addition to the ordinary Matriculation Examinations, to undergo an examination on the Greek Grammar and the first ten chapters of the Gospel of John. For Students of previous years the subjects of examinations for Scholarships will be those prescribed at the close of the session.

THE PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT, or College School, will be conducted as usual, under the charge of competent Masters. This department is under the superintendence of the Professor. The course of instruction is conducted so as to prepare the pupils for entering with advantage the Classes of the College.

By order of the Senatus Academicus.

GEORGE WEIR, A. M.,
Secretary to Senatus.
