Several gentlemen of distinction honoured the Fair with their attendance, among whom we noticed the Commissary General, his brother, Mr. Turquand, lately arrived from England, Maj. Huxley, Mr. De St. Ours, &c. &c. They seemed much amused and gratified with the sports of the day.

UPPER CANADA.

REMOVAL OF THE REMAINS OF GENERAL BROCK.

October 10.

We had the great pleasure of attending on Wednesday last, the removal of the mortal remains of MAJOR GENERAL SIR ISAAC BROCK, and those of his deceased Aid-de-Camp, LIEUTENANT COLONEL M'DONELL, from Fort George to the Monument at Queenston heights.

The day was remarkably fine—The persons who attended to pay this last tribute of respect to their memories, highly respectable and numerous. There could not be less than 10,000 persons.

His Excellency, Major Hillier, Ensign Maitland, Colonels Foster, Coffin, and Fitzgibbon appeared on the ground half an hour before the procession moved from Fort George.

Upon a silver plate on the lid of the General's coffin was engraved:—

"Here lie the remains of a brave and virtuous hero,

MAJOR GENERAL SIR ISAAC BROCK,
Commander of the British Forces,

And President administering the Government of Upper Canada, who fell when gloriously engaging the enemies of his country,

at the head of the Flank Companies,
