

LITTLE BOB TRUE, the Driver Boy, by the Author of Stories on the Petitions of the Lord's Prayer. Philadelphia, Presbyterian Board of Publication.

THIS is a beautiful little story for youth, giving the history of an orphan boy, the child of pious parents subjected to many hardships, and exposed to temptations, yet enjoying much of the Providential care of Him who hath said, "When father and mother forsake thee the Lord will take thee up."

---

GRAINS OF GOLD, suited to enrich youthful minds. Philadelphia, Presbyterian Board of Publication.

THIS volume consists of a number of narratives and sketches, such as frequently appear in the religious periodicals of the day. In their collected form they are both interesting and suited to benefit the youthful mind. We have selected one for our Children's Corner this month.

---

PICTURES OF TRUTH. Philadelphia, Presbyterian Board of Publication.

THIS is a little work, similar in plan, and deserving the same commendation.

---

TALKS ABOUT JESUS. Philadelphia, Presbyterian Board of Publication.—Pp. 67.

THIS little work is in the simplest style, fitted for the very youngest children. As its title indicates, it exhibits the leading features of the Saviour's character, his meekness, obedience, love, &c., intended to excite the young to follow in his footsteps.

---

THE STEPHENSON FAMILY, or Lessons on the Beatitudes. Philadelphia, Presbyterian Board of Publication.

"THESE words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart; and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up." This little work is constructed in illustration of this command. It contains the instructions of a father of a family, communicated in a conversational manner. The great truths contained in the introductory portion of our Lord's sermon on the Mount are explained in a simple manner, and illustrated by appropriate anecdotes.

---

WILLIAM BARTLETT OR THE GOOD SON, the Contested Seat. Lessons on the Stars, and who is the Happiest Girl. Philadelphia, Presbyterian Board of Publication. Pp. 108.

---

TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT of the Board of Publication of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. Presented to the General Assembly at their meeting in New Orleans, May 1858.

HAVING just noticed a number of the works recently published by the Presbyterian Board, we may here give some more particular account of its operations during the past year as these are detailed in the Report. Notwithstanding the almost unprecedented commercial depression and wide-spread embarrassments of the past year the Board has been enabled to carry on its operations without serious reverse or disaster. The results of the year's operations will compare favorably with those of any year preceding. More new works have been published, nearly as many volumes have been sold,