

surgeons, some of whom existed more than a century before I was born, and which I have transmitted to my eldest son, I am deeply interested in this question, and if I can feel that I have done anything to help throw down these barriers, and unite the profession of the whole Dominion, I shall consider my time well spent, and that I have not for so many years been a member of this association in vain.

August 22nd, 1894.