

Good Christmas ...Books...

Santa Claus's Partner.

By THOMAS NELSON PAGE.

Illustrated in Colors by W. Glackens.

CLOTH, postpaid, $1.50.

"Mr. Page's Christmas story will appeal to the universal human heart. It tells how a child transformed the character of a successful business man, whose nature had become hard and selfish in the pursuit of wealth, and is told with all the charm of manner and tenderness of feeling of which the author of 'Marse Chan' is the master. The story is now published for the first time, having never appeared in serial or other form."

Chronicles of Aunt Minervy Ann.

By JOEL CHANDLER HARRIS.

Profusely Illustrated by A. B. Frost.

CLOTH, - $1.25.

Mr. Harris has succeeded in creating a second original character as whimsically charming and individual as "Uncle Remus." Aunt Minervy Ann is an old-fashioned negro mammy, of a sort now just dying out in the South. This is one of the best Christmas books.

In Chimney Corners.

Merry Tales of Irish Folk Lore.

By SEUMAS MacMANUS.

Illustrated in Colors by Pamela Colman Smith.

CLOTH, - $1.50.

Mr. McManus's "Through the Turf Smoke," and his many recent magazine contributions, have established his reputation here as a delineator of Irish peasant wit and folk lore. This volume is devoted to those tales of giants, witches, kings, and invincible "Jacks," which are so Celtic in character and in quick invention. Miss Pamela Colman Smith has drawn for the book a series of colored illustrations, altogether unusual in their imaginative and decorative strength.

Dionysius.

The Weaver's Heart's Dearest

By BLANCHE WILLIS HOWARD.

CLOTH, - $1.25.

A novel in which the author of "One Summer," "Guenn," etc., returns to her earliest and most sympathetic manner. The story centres in the daughter of a Swabian peasant family, at service in a German noble's household.
