Prom MR WILLIAM MAGRATE. Erindale, Credit P. O., Jan. 8th, 1883,

Ma Dean Sutherland : Some two months since I became so aillicted with Rheumatism since I became so attleted with Rhoumatism of the neek and right shoulder as to render my right arm nearly powerloss. I determined to try your "Ithoumatine" and the result is that I am now free from pain, and enjoy the full use of my arm. My general health is also much improved by the use of the medicine. The first two bottles relieved me—the third bottle freed me from all pain

The Say: — The British Quarterly Journal of Agriculture 22, s. "The horses of Normandy are a capital rice for hard work and scanty fure. Have never elsewhere seen such horses at the collar. Under the di igence, post-carriage, or cumbrous cabriolet, or en the farm, they are ender of and energetic bayond description. With their necks cut to the bene they flinch not. They keep their or a linear when other horses would die of neglect and hard treatment." The superiority of French stallions for crossing on the common marces of America is est-blished.

This fact has caused the development of the two largest importing and breading either.
