Important Books

Bond-Holders and Bread-Winners.

By S. S. KING, Esq. A startling picture of political crimes committed in the name of Liberty. Facts and figures from the Eleventh Census, with maps and illustrations. Massachusetts enabled to accumulate more wealth than nine great Western and Southern States. Pennsylvania more than twelve. New York more than fifteen. Agriculture and labor robbed. Price, 25 cents, sent postpaid.

Is This your Son, My Lord?

A Powerful Realistic Romance. By HELEN GARDNER, author of "A Thoughtless Yes," "Men, Women, and Gods," Etc. This is probably the most fearless and terrible exposé of conventional immorality and hypocrisy ever written. 25,000 copies sold in ten months. It is a book for teachers of youth. A fine portrait of the author forms a frontispiece. Price, paper 50 cents; cloth $1.00.

Who Lies?

An Interrogation. By PROF. EMIL BLUM and SIGMUND ALEXANDER. This is one of the boldest, most radical, and realistic works of the decade. It is as unconventional as it is unique, and will unquestionably call forth hostile criticisms in quarters where its shafts enter. In religion and ethics it is radical. In politics, strongly socialistic. In literature it is extremely realistic. In general, bold, frank, and truthful. Price, paper 50 cents.

Jason Edwards.

An Average Man. By HAMLIN GARLAND, author of "A Spoil of Office," "Main-Travelled Roads," Etc. This powerful story depicts with startling fidelity the real life of the artisan and farmer today; a terrible picture of the unequal struggle of the poor for bread and roof. This story is rich in sunshine and shadows. Price, cloth $1.00; paper 50 cents.

Main-Travelled Roads.

Six Mississippi Valley Stories. By HAMLIN GARLAND, author of "Jason Edwards," Etc. These stories give the most vivid pictures of Western life among the farmers ever written. Mr. Garland has been justly termed the Ibsen of America. Price, paper 50 cents; cloth, $1.00.

All graduates of Barker & Spence's Shorthand and Business School, 12 King Street West, Toronto, are in good positions; ninety per cent of their pupils belong to Toronto, which is positive proof of the thoroughness of all their courses. A new term commences Tuesday, April 4th, for which special rates have been made during the ensuing term; all interested should immediately write for information; thorough class-room work and graduates placed in good positions has a much greater effect than loud trumpeting in newspapers; if you have never communicated with them write or call at once.
