Mercantile Summary.

THE TREATY of 1860 between France and England has been revived; "the contracting parties guarantee to each other the treatment of the most favored nation." The treaty will remain in force till 30th June, 1877.

THE AGENCY of the City Bank in Toronto, will not be removed to 262 Yonge street, as intimated in our last issue, but a branch will be opened there under the supervision of the Toronto agent, with a special view to deposits.

MESSRS Jno. Charlesworth & Co., of Toronto, have determined to give up the dry goods business—a sensible conclusion. The trade is overdone and it would be well if more of those both in the wholesale and retail lines who are struggling against fate, as this firm has long been doing, would speedily arrive at the same determination.

BY THE last mail the failure of Messrs. Jeffries, Maclean & Connolly, merchants and shippers of Manchester, Eng., is announced with liabilities of upwards of £86,000, and acceptances beside of £106,000. A petition has also been filed for liquidation by Messrs. Michael Swallow & Son, manufacturers at Heckmond-wike, with liabilities of £100,000. The firm employed between 700 and 800 hands.
