AN ERROR.

The sentence in Professor Macnaghten's article on page ten of this issue, beginning "When Socrates argued that it was better to suffer injustice than do it," should read: "When Socrates argued that it was never right to return an injury."—[Ed.]

Our motto is "UNTO ALL THE WORLD": Share our efforts and determination to realize it within the first twenty years of the twentieth century!

Our rate is the minimum one of ONE DOLLAR per year in advance.
