The Micmacs of Whyccomagh

There is a considerable Indian settlement at Whyccomagh, C. B. For the most part the members of this band are good, religious people. Like all the Micmacs, they cling tenaciously to the faith preached by the Abbé Sigogne, Father Leclercq and the Abbé Maillara. The good Lord seems to have a special providence for these dear children of His. So far there has never been a church for them at Whyccomagh. With consent of His Lordship, acquiescence of High Chief Deny of Eskasoni, and with the good will and wishes of Captain Basque and his faithful Whyccomagh band, we have decided to erect a small mission church for the accommodation of these people. The day the subscription list was opened we had $355 subscribed, three of these poor people pledging as high as $25 each. We have permission from our Right Reverend Bishop to appeal to the public for aid in building this house to God's honor. In the vestry will be a nook for the missionary to put up in when on the mission. At present some inconvenience is felt and some time lost in going to the white man's village for lodgings. Subscriptions of even ten cents will be gladly received and thankfully acknowledged. There can scarcely be a more worthy object of charity.
