SUITS for MEN

who demand Style and Fit combined with Service and
Good Appearance

There are some men who don't care what a suit looks like when it's on, providing it meets their fancy when it's on the display rack. There are others who not only want a suit that looks well, but are particular as to its fitting and service-giving qualities, so they come to this store, where they get satisfaction. Today we ask you to view the season's latest models, combining the quality that prevailed before the war, together with the season's desired fashion touches—the soft roll lapel—form-fitting jacket—patch pockets, etc. Through the grouping of orders for our large chain of stores we have been able to buy these suits at prices equally as low as before the war, and offer you a range of fabrics to choose from that Fashion has decreed favorite for fall wear. Every suit well tailored and finished, with the trousers cut as men want them, and a perfect fit guaranteed. Prices positively the lowest in British Columbia for equal style and quality. Let us show you.
