

(b) evidence that the person sought is the person to whom the conviction refers;

and, if such person was sentenced, by:

(c) a copy of the judgement or order of sentence; and

(d) a statement showing what portion of the sentence remains to be served.

ARTICLE 9

Extradition Evidence

1. The evidence submitted in support of a request for extradition shall be admitted in extradition proceedings in the requested State if it purports to be under the stamp or seal of a department, ministry or minister of the requesting State, without proof of the official character of the stamp or seal.

2. The evidence referred to in paragraph 1 may include originals or copies of statements, depositions or other evidence purporting to have been taken on oath or affirmation whether taken for the purpose of supporting the request for extradition or for some other purpose.

3. The evidence described in paragraph 2 shall be admissible in extradition proceedings in the requested State, whether sworn or affirmed to in the requesting State or in some third state.

ARTICLE 10

Additional Evidence

1. If the requested State considers the evidence submitted in support of the request for extradition to be insufficient, it may request the submission of additional evidence and may set a time limit for the submission of that evidence, but upon the request of the requesting State, may grant a reasonable extension of the time limit set.

2. If the additional evidence is considered insufficient, or is not received within the time specified by the requested State, the person sought may be discharged or set at liberty.

3. Notwithstanding paragraph 2, extradition proceedings may be recommenced for the same or other extradition offence, upon a new request for extradition being made by the requesting State, and on the basis of the evidence already submitted and any other evidence.
