Availability of Persons to Give Evidence Or Assist Investigations in the Requesting State

1. The Requesting State may request that a person be made available to testify or to assist an investigation.
2. The Requested State shall invite the person to assist an investigation or to appear as a witness in the proceedings and seek that person's concurrence thereto.
3. The request shall indicate the approximate allowances payable and the travelling and subsistence expenses refundable by the Requesting State.
4. At the request of the Requesting State, the Requested State may grant the person an advance which shall be refunded by the Requesting State.

Making Detained Persons Available to Give Evidence Or Assist Investigations

1. A person in custody in the Requested State shall, at the request of the Requesting State, be temporarily transferred to the Requesting State to assist investigations or to appear as a witness in the proceedings, provided that the person consents to that transfer and there are no overriding grounds against transferring the person.
2. Where the person transferred is required to be kept in custody under the law of the Requested State, the Requesting State shall hold that person in custody and shall return the person in custody at the conclusion of the execution of the request.
3. Where the sentence imposed expires, or where the Requested State advises the Requesting State that the transferred person is no longer required to be held in custody, that person shall be set at liberty and be treated as a person present in the Requesting State pursuant to a request seeking that person's attendance.

ARTICLE 8

Service of Documents

1. The Requested State shall effect service of documents that are transmitted to it for this purpose by the Requesting State.
2. Service may be effected by simple transmission of the document to the person to be served. If the Requesting State expressly so requests, service shall be effected by the Requested State in the manner provided for the service of analogous documents under its own law or in a special manner consistent with such law.
