

APPENDICES

(A)—The Agricultural capabilities of New Brunswick—
As indicated by its Geological structure.....	115
“ by a practical survey and examination of its soils	117
“ by actual and comparative productiveness,— Professor Johnston.....	123
(B)—Agricultural capabilities of the Matapedia district,—A. W. Siméon.....	126
(C)—Frontier Route, Line No. 1. Report on an examination of the country between Rivière du Loup and Woodstock,—T. S. Rubidge, C. E.....	131
(D)—Frontier Route, Line No. 2. Correspondence in reference to the extension of the St. Andrews and Woodstock Rail- way,—Walter M. Buck, C. E.....	138
(E)—Central Route, Line No. 8. Report on Exploration from Boiestown across the Tobique Highlands,—W. H. Tre- mainé, C. E.	145
(F)—Remarks on the shortest lines of communication between America and Europe in connection with the contemplated Intercolonial Railway.....	148
Maps printed to accompany Report—
General Map of the country between Quebec and Halifax, showing the various projected routes.
Chart showing the relative geographical position of the Bri- tish Islands and British America with the shortest lines across the Atlantic, to accompany Appendix F.

Q. 2