

LORD COLLINGWOOD.—Fourth Edition.

A SELECTION from the PUBLIC and PRIVATE CORRESPONDENCE of VICE-ADMIRAL LORD COLLINGWOOD; interspersed with Memoirs of his Life. By G. L. NEWNHAM COLLINGWOOD, Esq. F.R.S. Illustrated by a fine Portrait, a Plan of the Battle of Trafalgar, &c. &c. Fourth Edition, in 8vo. 16s.

"We once more thank the Editor for his highly important and very valuable work. It is one which will occupy a permanent place in the English library. The portrait of one English worthy more is now secured to posterity."—Quarterly Review.

"We do not know when we have met with so delightful a book as this, or one with which we are so well pleased with ourselves for being delighted. Its attraction consists almost entirely in its moral beauty."—Edinburgh Review.

"Having thus referred to Lord Collingwood's Life, I may be allowed to say, that the publication of that volume is indeed a national good; it ought to be in every officer's cabin, and in every statesman's cabinet."—Southey's Life of Lord Nelson, new edit. p. 348.

JOSEPH NAPOLEON BONAPARTE.

Third Edition, 3s. 6d. boards.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH of JOSEPH NAPOLEON BONAPARTE, Count de Survilleira.—Third Edition.

"To all who wish perfectly to understand, in order that they may properly appreciate, the Character of Joseph Bonaparte—who wish facts and documents to be the ground-work of their opinions, and desire full information of the events both in Naples and Spain, which called forth the energies of this great man—to all such persons we recommend this work, as a valuable and highly interesting Compendium."—Arnold's Magazine of Fine Arts, &c. July, 1833.

"It contains much that is highly interesting; indeed, we have rarely met with a more pleasing record than the detail of the improvement effected, and the evils exterminated, in the accession of Joseph Napoleon to the Throne of Naples. He seems to have striven hard to render himself a real benefactor to the people amongst whom his lot was for a time cast. The concordant testimonies of General Lamarque, General Foy, Bernardin de St. Pierre, and General Lafayette, sufficiently show the estimation in which the Count has been held by those competent to judge."—New Monthly Magazine, 1833.

"At the present crisis of European affairs, this biography must prove universally interesting. . . . Joseph appears to be a man of eminent talents, and of profound judgment; if his genius is less brilliant than was that of his brother, it is assuredly more reflective, more philosophical, and better adapted to promote the happiness of mankind. . . . This small work does infinite credit to the compiler; nothing extraneous is inserted to swell the Volume; and, though the subject deserves a much larger work, nothing is omitted that might fail to give a true impression of the brother of that "Man of Fate," the Artillery Officer, the Emperor, and the Exile, who schooled Emperors, and gave Kings to the Realms of Europe, who, in return, gave him fifty acres on a rock in the Atlantic, a Governor, and a tomb-stone."—Metropolitan, March.
