Of that offer the Directors of above a hundred Libraries in the United States, British Colonies, Great Britain, and on the Continent of Europe, have availed themselves. But the offer was limited to Free Libraries ; and this has repeatedly been brought under my consideration. To meet difficulties which have been felt, I remove the restrictions, and proffer the gift to any one or more of three Libraries in each Colony or State, irrespective of their being Proprietary, Subscription, or Free, on the condition of their meeting the expense of transmission from Edinburgh, the place of Publication. Applications will be met in the order in which they may be received ; and should it happen that more than three applications be received
