Colder Weather and Curlers Will Play Today

Toronto Hockey Teams Not Among Saturday Night Winners

Central Y.M.C.A. Walkers Awarded Verdict at Buffalo

Note and Comment

Tho the mild weather has been with us it has been a good thing for some of the curlers, for two more sessions will reduce the single rinks to an even sixteen. There are 37 teams left in the local competition and five of the ten in the first round are due to drop out tonight, leaving 32 for the second round, which should be decided Wednesday night, with the tankard primaries out of the way. Some of the rinks don't last very long when there's ice.

The Saskatoon Curling Club's annual bonspiel starts on Jan. 22 and continues until Jan. 29. There will be 17 sheets of ice under one roof which they claim is the largest curling rink in the world. Five open events are on the program and the prizes altogether amount to $4000.

Quebec's margin of two goals was about what the champions deserved. Tecumsehs had the lead well in the final division and the fans who are still loyal to the home team were pulling confidently for a win. However, it was not to be and Con. Corbeau had the distinction of coming on the ice to stay, while victory slipped away from the grasp of his team.

The game was great from the viewpoint, there being very few vacant seats in the big ampitheatre, with the standing room sign out in the bleacher section. The people anticipated a fine game and were there to enjoy it.

Whether or not there is any foundation for the stories that the N.H.A. games in general and the last one between Toronto and Tecumseh in particular, are not on the level, had no effect on the faith of the followers, who cheered Howard and George and Art and Billy like true heroes.

As a matter of fact there is no foundation for the belief that pro. hockey at the Arena is anything but square. The Tecumsehs tried their best on Saturday, just as they did on Wednesday, and on the form displayed undoubtedly the best teams won.

Canadiens, who lead the league, turned the tables at Ottawa, just as Quebec did here. The Frenchmen have only been beaten twice this winter, the Tecumsehs having the other victory to their credit.

Torontos could not keep up their winning gait on the Wanderers' ice and are located all by themselves at the bottom of the table.

Likely the six-man style of game appeals also to the fans, as well as the honesty displayed by the pro teams, for is not the N.H.A. drawing twice as big crowds as the amateurs, who are playing at half the price?

They have a player in the B.C. League who never talks back to the referee and he is none the less effective, because he never speaks. Silent Ulrich is the deaf mute man of the Victoria team, who has featured in two sensational finishes this season, in one of which he scored the winning goal in an over-time play against New Westminster, and accomplished the same performance against Vancouver last week. He was carried as a spare last year by Vancouver. This year he promises to be the star of the Coast League.

Ed. Barrow says that he was misquoted when they said he wanted to take back the salary limit agreement. He merely wants to repeal the individual limit clause, which several clubs found a stumbling block when they came to send out contracts.

Spike Kelly of Chicago has formally claimed the wandering welterweight championship as his own. Spike returned yesterday from Memphis with his manager, Fred Gilmore, and on the strength of his victory last week over Ray Bronson of Indianapolis put in a claim for recognition. Kelly won every one of the eight rounds with Bronson and at no time during the entire affair did Referee Willie Hauck have to worry about the decision. Gilmore says Spike's claim to the title is as good as anybody's now and he is prepared at any time to meet Wildcat Ferns, Mike Gibbons or any of the others for the title.

CHAMPIONS TURN TABLES ON NICHOLSON'S INDIANS

Tecumsehs Ahead Right Up to Middle of Final Period —Big Crowd Saturday Night in the Arena Gardens.

Quebec should be well satisfied with the amount of revenge they succeeded in handing Tecumsehs Saturday night, when they beat them by 4 to 2.

The champions were apparently peeved over their defeat in their own back yard two weeks ago, where for years they were considered unbeatable. That they were out for blood was easily seen before they had been on the ice many minutes, but, altho they got away with a lot of rough stuff, they were paid back so well that they soon quit.

It was not the size of the score that made the Indians feel the sting so much as the fact that the local boys had the game cinched, so to speak, and were taking life easy in the last quarter, when with a rush the Ancient Capital sextet opened up like a shot from a gun and before the Indians knew what had happened they had a two-goal lead. It seemed a shame, as Quebec never had a chance except in the first five minutes and the last ten minutes. At all times the braves had it over the blue and white like a tent, both individually and at team work. With victory in sight and having had all the best of the play thruout the game and then to have it snatched from them in the last ten minutes was what the Indians had to take.

The score stood at the commencement of the last period, 3 to 1 in favor of the Tecumsehs, and the easterners looked down and out for the day, when in the last few minutes they forged into the lead and dispersed the locals' hopes.

About 4000 fans watched the struggle and they seemed well satisfied. They witnessed as pretty a battle as has been staged here this year. Both teams went to it from start to finish, checking back vigorously and playing six-man hockey to a science.

Quebec was checked into submission, but they came away when the Indians slowed up in the last ten minutes.

As usual H. McNamara was the star of the evening. He had the Quebec defence on pins and needles all the time. Every time he started a rush every man available was called back to get the big fellow. Mac certainly has it over every other defence man in the business. At least we have seen every defence man except Bad Joe Hall, and he will have to show more than the others to hold his laurels. He certainly keeps them guessing and his opponents realize that he is the king-pin and act accordingly.

Joe Malone is great.

Malone looks the best man on the Quebec team and shapes up great. Very few have anything on him. He works hard all the time and he started the final rush. Tommy Smith, a brother of Harry Smith of the Tecumsehs, tried hard, but did not live up to his press notices by a long shot, perhaps the way Throop checked back had a lot to do with it. Speaking of Throop, it ought to be said that he plays hockey all the time and he is the best forward the Indians have.

Jack Marks, who was supposed to be getting into condition when he was practising here in December, sadly lacked that asset and, after the first period, he made some grand attempts to keep away from the puck. Poor Jack, he must realize that a grandfather cannot play hockey. Moran in goal is the most sensational man seen here this season. He stops them as if he had a lacrosse stick or a baseball mit. When one did get past him it was usually poked between his feet or shot from so short a distance that he had no chance at all. Everyone was disappointed that Bad Joe Hall was not on the job, but as his suspension is still good, he was not allowed to play. The fans got a surprise in Nicholson. Billy stopped brilliantly all night. He showed good judgment and, except for a few which he did not clear quick enough, he compared favorably with Moran.

G. McNamara was also in the limelight, as well as his brother, and the Soo twins are showing up these N.H.A. stars considerably this year. Vair and Smith were good as long as they lasted, but they have hardly any condition at all and break up when they get used roughly.

Dr. Wood is the only real referee in the N. H. A. He shows no favoritism, and he calls them as he sees them, and is not afraid to do it, either. Brennan looks rather weak as an official, and he let plays pass that were right under his eyes.

Game in Detail.

The first period was the fastest played in Toronto this season. Quebec started early, and it looked as if it was all over but the shouting, but Nicholson spoils the surprise. He stopped them all, and he was kept busy, too, for about five minutes. Gradually the Indians began to loosen up, and soon had the tables turned on their opponents. Jack Marks was given a minor for tripping G. McNamara. Vair received a minor. Throop and H. McNamara opened the scoring by a nice piece of combination. Tecumsehs were pressing hard when the bell rang.

The second period was a slam-bang affair, with both teams mixing freely, and considerable rough work got by that should have been stopped. Lifflton replaced Vair. After several close shaves, in which the Braves were dodging all around the net, Smith slapped one in from a face-off just in front of goal. How it went in nobody seemed to know, as they lined up three men in goal to stop the puck. Strike replaced Smith. The pace began to liven up more as the period progressed, and both goaltenders were working hard. The Soo twins were continually making raids upon the enemy's territory, but were unable to score. After rushing considerably at the beginning of the third period the Indians began to slacken up and were loafing and playing rag just a little. Gaul replaced Throop and Vair took Strike's place. Quebec looked to be all in and were lagging pretty well all the time. It looked as if it was a trick to fool the locals. Play began to get rough, and Throop was sent on to replace Vair and Corbeau for Gaul. Corbeau took a smash at Crawford and was given a major. Quebec opened up a dying sprint, with Malone as the leader, and soon had Tecumsehs cornered. Crawford rushed and passed to Malone, who tied the score with a wicked shot. That settled the Indians, and Malone had no trouble in scoring again in three minutes and winning the game. After several more attempts, Crawford made the final tally in two minutes. Tecumsehs tried hard in the last few minutes, but Quebec lined up a four-man defence and held them safe.

WANDERERS WIN FROM TORONTOS

Small Crowd See Pros Play at Montreal in Water and Slush—Notes of the Game.

MONTREAL, Jan. 18.—Wanderers 3, Torontos 1. Over going that was covered with water and slush, the Wanderers had little difficulty in proving themselves a better band of hockey players than those brought from Toronto by Manager Ridpath. The locals assumed the lead early in the game and held their opponents well in hand at all stages. At times the Torontos would display bursts of speed in end-to-end rushes, only to terminate in unsuccessful efforts to land one past Boyes. The visiting line were always kept well outside the local defence, which prevented their chances of getting clear shots. The game was as poor an exhibition of hockey as has been seen here in some time, due largely to the condition of the ice. It was impossible to make the usual rushes which are features of the six-man game. Combination play was out of the question almost at all times, and the locals excelled at individual rushing.

The ice conditions gave the game an appearance of being rougher than it was really, altho severe fines were imposed, the severest penalty going to Russell, who cross-checked Wilson over the head, and was given a match foul and ruled off for the remainder of the game, the mix-up taking place in the final period. The changes were frequent during the game, so as to keep the men well freshened up, Foyston and Wilson were changed at periods of ten minutes each, while Currie, who was recently signed by President Lichtenhein, was given a chance, being used on two occasions as relief man. He did not show any great ability, altho it would be hard to judge him on the going he was asked to play over.

The attendance was small, there being less than 2000 in the Arena. After their recent victory over the Tecumsehs, many looked for the visitors to put up a stiffer argument, but they seemed to go to pieces once the Wanderers took the lead. It was not until within thirteen seconds of the expiration of time in the final period that the Torontos scored, thus barely saving themselves from a shut-out.

Teams and Summary.

Wanderers (3)—Goal, Boyes; point, Ross; cover, S. Cleghorn; wing, Hyland; centre, Russell; wing, O. Cleghorn.

Torontos (1)—Goal, Marchand; point, Marshall; cover, Cameron; wing, Davidson; centre, Foyston; wing, Nighbor.

OTTAWA OUTCLASSED BY THE FRENCHMEN

OTTAWA, Jan. 19.—George Kennedy's Canadiens gave the Ottawas the worst beating they have ever sustained on their own ice in last night's N.H.A. match at the Arena. The playing surface was slushy, and the conditions, it was calculated, would suit Ottawa, but Canadiens outplayed them all around and won by 6 to 0. Play was remarkably fast, considering the ice. Only one major foul was meted out, that falling to Newsy Lalonde, who tripped Darragh in the second period. Five thousand people saw the game, and the appearance of the visitors in their tri-color, barber-poled jerseys, and the Ottawas in white, caused so much confusion that supporters of the home team were often cheering for the Frenchmen. Russell Bowie and Eddie Phillips officiated. Line-up:

Canadiens (6)—Goal, Vezina; point, Dubeau; cover, Lavliolette; centre, Lalonde; wings, Pitre and Smith.

Ottawa (0)—Goal, Lesueur; point, Lake; cover, Shore; centre, Ronan; wings, Broadbent and Darragh.

Substitutes—Payan for Lavliolette, Berlanquette for Smith, Lowery for Shore, Shore for Lowery, Lowery for Broadbent, Broadbent for Lowery, Benedict for Lesueur, Lowery for Broadbent.

Western Canada Rugby Union's Rules of Its Own

REGINA, Jan. 19.—As a protest against teh eastern Rugby authorities, the Western Canada Rugby Union at its second annual meeting, held here on Saturday night, decided to break away from the Canadian Rugby Union, formulate playing rules of its own, and altogether ignore the self-appointed eastern rugby authorities.

A Western Canada Rugby Union rule book will be published, containing the playing rules and other data, including the constitution and bylaws of the three affiliated unions.

This radical action came asa result of the attitude of the east towards the western Rugby men during the past two years. The refusal of the Canadian Union to consider the suggestions made by the Alberta Union was the immediate cause of the drastic action.

C. H. Bellanger was chosen president of the W. C. R. U. for the year 1913, and the place of the next annual meeting was fixed for Calgary. Murray Thomson was elected secretary-treasurer. Another action which is of considerable importance was the decision to have a fixed sum guaranteed to each team for transportation.

TORONTO PEDS. WIN AT BUFFALO

Bison Town Walkers Persisted in Running and Were Disqualified.

BUFFALO, Jan. 19.—The two-mile relay walking race between the All-Buffalo and the Toronto Central Y.M.C.A. terminated in a rather disheartening manner last night, at the third set of games under the 74th Regiment Athletic Association auspices.

The Toronto team was awarded the race by Referee Byrne, who disqualified L. H. Gorin and E. A. Kopperman of the Buffalo team for running. The violation of the regulations was so flagrant that there was hardly a dissenting voice heard when Referee Byrne announced his decision. Mr. Byrne proved himself an efficient and capable referee, handling a difficult race in masterly fashion.

The Buffalo men led all the way, Cobb walking first for Buffalo, finishing about fifteen feet ahead of C. Kelly. Whinihan held the lead for the Buffalo team until near the end of the half mile when C. Mertens gained five to ten feet. Gavin started like a whirlwind and had Referee Byrne on his heels.

SAMMY MANSON IS TIGERS' CAPTAIN

The Tiger Football Club of Hamilton have elected Sammy Manson of last year's intermediates captain of the senior team. The selection of a manager was left over until another meeting. There are three men in the field for the position —Dave Tope, manager last year; "Red" Dixon, the ex-Varsity player, and Ben Simpson, the old Tiger half-back. Each man has a claim on the position, and a red-hot tussle is being made to get the right man in.
