

 Canada's Great Exposition will open up new avenues of trade, and old ones will be broadened, and both will bring the Dominion millions of dollars and thousands of people,—that will be the result to the commercial world.

* * * * *

 As an institution of wide educational value, its effect will be quite as great.

* * * * *

 New modes of life and action, new phases of art and triumphs in science and industry will be brought before the people of the Dominion in a form which will leave an indelible impression.

* * * * *

Taking the last three great Expositions,—Paris 1889, Chicago 1893, California 1894—Paris Exposition made a profit of 8,000,000 francs, or $1,600,000.

* * * * *

The gold reserve or balance in the Bank of France was enormously increased.

* * * * *

The various railroad companies admit an increase in their receipts over the same months of the preceding year of over 66,000,000 francs.

* * * * *

The City of Paris Omnibus Co. of 4,000,000 francs.

* * * * *