

1. The name of the Association shall be "The Kootenay Mining Protective Association."

2. The object of the Association shall be the protecting, developing and fostering of the mining industry of the West Kootenay District of British Columbia.

3. The officers shall consist of a president, six or more vice-presidents, (one of which is to be a representative of each mining division): one treasurer; one secretary, who, with the committee of management, consisting of twenty-four members, shall govern the Association and serve for one year, or until their successors are elected or appointed.

4. That the Association shall be composed of mine owners, managers, superintendents of mines, and others interested in mines; and that mining companies joining the Association be represented by their managers, or such official as the company shall name, such manager or official to be a member of the Association so long as his company shall belong to it.

5. That each person joining the Association shall pay an entrance fee of twenty dollars, ($20.00), and each mining company fifty dollars ($50.00) and such other assessments made by the committee of management, proportionately with the ad-