CONTENTS.

| Government organized in New Haven . | | | | | | PAGE |
|---------------------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|-------|
| New Haven plants towns on Long Island | | • | • | • | • | . 271 |
| in Long Island | • | | | | | 070 |

CHAPTER XVII.

THE PRELATES AND MASSACHUSETTS.

| Enemies and friends of Massaehusetts in England | | | |
|---|---|---|-------|
| The archhighong in the commission of | | | . 273 |
| The archbishops in the commission for ruling the colonies | | | . 274 |
| Massachusetts refuses to deliver up its charter | | | . 274 |
| The Plymouth Council surrenders its charter | | | . 275 |
| A quo warranto against Massachusetts | | | . 275 |
| The king appoints Gorges governor-general of New England | | · | . 276 |
| English persecution peoples America | • | • | |
| Hampden and Cromwell | • | • | . 276 |
| Massachusetts menaecs independence | • | • | . 277 |
| | • | • | . 278 |
| Growth of Massachusette, It is a sur | • | | . 279 |
| Growth of Massachusetts. Its ship-building | | | . 280 |
| It declines to seek favor of the Long Parliament | | | . 281 |
| Its body of liberties | • | • | |
| ts towns and town meeting. | · | • | . 282 |
| How ministers were chosen. How land was held | • | • | . 285 |
| Massachusetta opposent New II. | | | . 286 |
| Massachusetts annexes New Hampshire | | | . 286 |
| Strife with Gorton | | | . 287 |
| Refusal of allegiance to King Charles | • | • | |
| o danses | • | • | . 288 |

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE UNITED COLONIES OF NEW ENGLAND.

1

T F A T C F H H C C

D T

| Movement in New England toward union | | | |
|---|-----|---|-------|
| Connecticut at first reluctant to be bound | • | • | . 289 |
| The United Colonies of New England. Conditions of union | • | • | . 290 |
| Slavery under the confederation | • | • | . 291 |
| John Winthrop president of the confederacy | • | • | . 293 |
| Strife with the Narragansetts | • | • | . 294 |
| Charton granted to Denne Milling | | | . 295 |
| Charter granted to Roger Williams | | | . 296 |
| Government instituted in Providence | | | . 297 |
| Union of Providence and the island of Rhode Island by charter | r . | | . 298 |
| onion of Maine with Massachusetts | | | . 298 |
| Progress of eivil liberty in Massachusetts | | · | . 301 |
| Massachusetts a perfect republic | • | • | |
| The successive division of parties | • | • | . 302 |
| Danger from Presbyterianism | • | • | . 302 |
| Order of the Long Parliament on the complaint of Gorton | • | • | . 304 |
| The general court and synod of Massachusetts | • | • | . 305 |
| The claim to exercise power independent of parliament | • | • | . 306 |
| The appeal to the Long Parliament | • | • | . 306 |
| Magnanimous answer of the Long Parliament | • | • | . 307 |
| A "Platform of Church Discipline" | | | . 308 |
| | | | . 308 |

xiv

.