

CONTENTS.

V

Court at Springfield interrupted. Supreme court in Boston	PAGE 53
Middlesex convention at Concord	54

CHAPTER IV.

THE FIRST AMERICAN CONGRESS.

September-October 1774.

Gage seizes the powder of the province. The people rise	55
More councillors resign. Good conduct of the people. Opinions of Fox	56
Rising of the people. Courage of Putnam. Consequences of the rising	57
Gage requires more troops. Wishes to raise Canadians and Indians	57
England seeks Indian alliances	58
Gage fortifies Boston. The court at Worcester interrupted	59
The Suffolk convention. Its resolutions	59
Formation of regiments. Fearlessness of Warren	60
Massachusetts wishes to revive its old charter. The congress organized	61
The method of voting. Speech of Patrick Henry	62
The vote by colonies conceded. Congress is opened with prayer	64
The psalm for the day. The foundation and extent of colonial rights	65
Influence of Samuel Adams. Congress approve the Suffolk resolutions	66
Dissolution of parliament. Uncertainty of Gage	67
Gage avoids meeting the Massachusetts assembly	68
The general congress find their grievances to be innovations	68
Congress accept the acts of navigation. Plan of Galloway	69
His defeat. Pennsylvania elects Dickinson to congress	70
Sympathy of congress for Boston. Maryland punishes the importers of tea	71
A letter from Washington. The resistance of Massachusetts approved	72
Sentence passed upon eleven acts of parliament	73
Congress threaten to stop British imports and exports	73
The slave-trade discontinued. Congress address the British people	74
Congress petition the king	75
Independence not yet desired	76
Preparations for war which Henry predicts	77

CHAPTER V.

HOW BRITAIN BEGAN CATHOLIC EMANCIPATION, AND HOW VIRGINIA NULLIFIED THE QUEBEC ACT.

October-November 1774.

Patrick Henry's opinion of Washington	78
Massachusetts forms a congress and prepares for war	78
Acts of Connecticut and Massachusetts	79
The emancipation of Catholics in Canada	79
Restoration of the French system of law. Canadian nobility conciliated	80
Establishment of the Catholic worship	80
Congress get the better of their bigotry against Catholics	81
Their address to the Canadians. Virginia opposes the Quebec act	82