HANDLING FOREIGN VOTE Careful Instructions Given to Hamilton Returning Officers.

HAMILTON, Dec. 29.-(Special.)-City Clerk Kent to-night issued instructions to the deputy returning officers for next Monday's elections as to preventing corrupt practices. He laid particular emphasis on the handling of the foreign vote, and said that deputy returning officers must not transfer names from slips of papers which the voters might bring in with them, to the ballot papers. He also instructed them that no interpreters were to be allowed in the polling booths, and that no person was to be allowed to vote who did not know English sufficiently to be made understand what he was to to be made understand what he was to strictive Legislation-Organization Is Growing.

A resolution to petition the provin-clai government to bring in legisla-tion that would prevent children under 16 years of age attending moving pic-ture shows and cheap theatres unless accompanied by parents or guardians was unanimously passed at the quarterly meeting of the archdiocesan union of the Holy Name Society of Toronto, held in St. Vincent's Hall last President Delaney was in the chair. There were also present delegates representing St. Joseph's, St. Paul's, St. Michael's, St. Patrick's, St. Basil's, St. Peter's, St. Anthony's, St. Helen's, St. Mary's, Holy Family, Holy Rosary. It was decided to recommend the formation of junior branches in all the parishes where the society is at present in existence, and it was also recommended to try to establish branches in all the parishes of the archdiocese outside the city. President Delaney was in the chair.

in all the parishes of the archdiocese outside the city.

The annual demonstration of the society will take place on Holy Name Sunday, Jan. 15. Those branches of the society east of Spadina-avenue will attend at St. Patrick's, McCaul-street, and those west of Spadina-avenue at St. Helen's, Dundas-street.

The union has adopted a uniform badge and button, the design having been approved and blessed by his honness Pope Pius X.

CARD FOR THE HOMELAND.

The World has received one of the Xmas greeting cards which the Greater Resina Club is circulating in the homeland. The card, besides wishing the usual greetings, extends an invitation to all the factors of the world to come to Canada and share in the wealth of opportunity that abounds in Canada, and particularly in the west, of which Regina is the capital. It is quite possible that this card may be the last straw which will cause the emigrant to decide to come to Canada.
