WHEAT-SOLD OFF ABRUPTLY AFTER SHOW OF STRENGTH

cHICAGO. Dec. 11.—Wall street depression acted like a wet blanket today on the wheat market here. The cereal, which had been on the advance, took the downgrade and closed 1-8c to 1-4c net lower to 1-8c up. Corn and oats finished unchanged to 1-8c to 1-4c.

Bullish hopes in wheat had been largely based on firm cables and a rall ng off in receipts. There also were raports of rain over the harvest section of Argentina. In addition, talk was current of a smaller exportable surplus from that country despite opinion by the minister of agriculture that the crop would yet show a record yield. Cold weather here, coupled with lack of snow, tended further to entice buyers.

C. P. R. WAS WEAK IN LONDON MARKET

General List Was Irregular Owing to Money Stringency in Britain and on the Continent.

LONDON, Dec. 11.-Money was dear lay. Discount rates were firm, ow-today. Discount rates were firm, owing to the monetary stringency here and on the continent.

The stock market opened firm on expectation of an early settlement of the strike on the Northeastern Rafiroad. Home Rails advanced moderately, but the continental political outlook checked large dealings anywhere. Paris selling in the afternoon helped to make the closing weak Consols lost a quarter of a point, owing to the cessation of government buying.

American securities opened firm and from a 1-4 to 1 3-4 above parity. Prices advanced during the first hour, but later Canadian Prifice became weak, and the list eat off to the optning level. Wall street sold in the early afternoon, but turned buyer in the late trading, making the closing irregular. Southern Pacific shares were strong.

INOTICE IS, hereby given that the Nisgara, St. Catharines and Toronto Railway authorized by the Statutes of Canada for 1806, chapter 122, section 1, paragraphs (b), (c) and (d), shortly described as follows:
