Defence Submits Letters Which Strengthen Plea of Insanity -Ten Days More.

NEW YORK, N.Y., Jan. 21.-District Attorney Jerome's long and severe cross-examination of Mrs. Evelyn roborated the claim that the girl, who the story of her relations with Stanford White, much as she has related it upon the stand at this and the former trial.

my and as further tending to show the effects her story had on the de-fendant's mind. Most of these letters were read to the jury in the former trial, and were considered as one of the strongest bits of evidence in the hands of the defence. Mr Jerome objected to their introduction in the record to-day, but was overruled by Justice Dowling after Thaw himself had made a waiver of the confidential relation of counsel and client, when Frederick W. Longfellow, his former attorney, appeared on the stand to identify the letters. Jerome was much quieter in his handling of young Mrs. Thaw on the Y.W.C.A. this evening. when Justice Dowling took a hand. The defence hopes to close its case Kneeshaw, vice-presidents:

HAD A STAB-LIKE PAIN THROUGH THE HEART.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS CURED HER AND SAVED HER LIFE.

There is no one, we imagine, sets about deliberately to do injury to the heart, yet in the excitement and excesses of present day living, the nervous system is done oe to, and the heart and nerves being so intimately bound up with one another, disorganization of the one means disease and disorder of the other.

When you find your heart the least bit out of rhyme, your nerves unhinged, don't wait until you are prostrated on a bed of sickness. Take Milburn's Heart and sickness. Take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They'll put you in such con-dition you'll never know you have a heart, make your brain clear and active, your make your blood rich and pure nerves strong, your blood rich and pure and your whole being thrill with a new

Mrs. John C. Yensen, Little Rocher, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with a stab-like pain through my heart. I tried many remedies but they seemed to do me more harm than goed. I was advised by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Pills, and after using two boxes I was completely cured. I cannot praise them enough for the world of good they did me for I believe they saved my life."
