Steamship Manchester Corporation, now discharging her inward cargo at the new city wharf, will go from this port to Philadelphia to load for Manchester.

Some thirty or forty persons from this city left on the I. C. R. train at 11 o'clock this morning to take the 'Ocean Limited' at Moncton, on an excursion to St. Anne de Beupre.

It will be remembered that Miss Fleet visited St. John about three years ago where she made many friends, who will wish her much happiness. She is a niece of Mrs. Hazen Brown, North End.

A party of young people, including Miss Maude Scott, Miss Cora Scott, Miss Maud Currie and Miss Marie Putnam of Maitland, N. S., are spending a few days at Camp Content, Pansenville. The party is chaperoned by Mrs. N. C. Scott.

A new soloist, Murray Bennett, appears on Monday. Jack Gurney, who has been very successful here, is to take a short vacation and then go to St. John where he will sing in another house of the Nickel circuit. (Bangor Commercial July 6.)

Hugh O'Neil, the well-known Fredericton horseman, came in at noon from the capital. He is to meet here Messrs Bryson and Fox, the Newton, Mass. horsemen, whose string of fast ones are racing in the Maritime circuit, which opens in Sackville today.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Carmarthen Street Methodist Church met at the parsonage last night and agreeably surprised Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney by observing the third anniversary of their marriage. Refreshments were served by the ladies and several bouquets of flowers were presented.

POLICE COURT

Adam Armstrong, Patrick McGowan and Albert Atkinson were fined eight dollars or two months for drunkenness. For a similar offence Robert Dixon was sent to jail for two months.

Dennis Ganniver, Daniel Harrison and John Kane were given the option of paying four dollars or hibernating ten days in jail.

Mary Degan, who was arrested precisely at midnight on Sheffield street by Officer Pitt, denied being intoxicated and was remanded.

Herbert McIntyre acknowledged charges of drunkenness and creating a disturbance in Peter Mahoney's barroom in North End. Owing to the having McIntyre had wrought in the store the proprietor was compelled to suspend business for several hours to enable him to rearrange matters in consideration of the prisoner's wife and family, the imposed fine of eight dollars was allowed to stand pending his good behavior.

Sadie Nairn was again remanded on the charge of abusive language to Mrs. Elizabeth Martin. The complainant testified that the Nairn woman addressed her in very unsavory terms, and to allow Nairn to secure witnesses the matter will not be resumed until Wednesday.

Owing to the absence from town of an important witness named Daley, the liquor case against the Williams Caples was adjourned until next Monday.

Owing to the indisposition of Mr. McAvity, who is unable to attend court, Leslie Singer, arraigned on a charge of theft of metal from McLean & Holt's foundry on Albion street was remanded for three days.

Several of those summoned to be in court this morning by the board of health were absent, and the majority of the remainder held in the interim cleaned their premises.

PERSONALS

Mrs. C. A. Bray and Mrs. Abigail Johnson, of Boston, arrived in the city today and are stopping with Mrs. J. O. Charlton, Waterloo street.

F. A. McDonald, formerly of the North End, but now in Boston, came in today to spend his vacation with relatives. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Agnes McDonald, who has been spending some weeks in the 'hulk'.

Miss Helen E. Alexander, who spent Sunday with her parents at Fredericton Junction, has returned to St. John.

Mrs. Harry P. Welsford (nee Gregory) will receive her friends on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and Thursday evening at her home, 37 Broad street.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winter will receive their friends at their home, 18 Delhi street, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings.

H. B. Loggie, of Chatham, formerly of U. N. B., but a second year medical student at McGill, passed through the city today en route to his home from Northfield, Mass., where he has been attending the college Y. M. C. A. convention.

AN INTERESTING SIGHT.

Passengers on the incoming C. P. R. suburban train this morning witnessed a very pretty and interesting sight while coming over the bridge at the falls.

The water was as smooth as glass and did not at all look like the place where the foaming rapids flow at high and low tides. It was just ebb tide and five tug boats were coming down under the bridge with their tows. Two had three-masted schooners, two others had two-masted schooners while the fifth had several scowloads of deck. It gave that region a very busy appearance.

A NICKEL JOLLIFICATION.

The Nickel staff had a jolly time at Newwood's last night. Two large buck boards left the city at 10:30. After partaking of a sumptuous repast, the evening was spent with dancing, music and singing. The event was in the nature of a farewell to Miss Alicia Wren, who is leaving the city, and a welcome to Miss Isabelle M. Foley, who is taking her place on the Nickel staff. The party returned to the city early this morning after a most enjoyable evening. DeWitt Cairns has been transferred to Halifax and will leave next week.

S.S. CALVIN AUSTIN BROUGHT BIG CROWD

Eastern Liner Had 552 Passengers from Boston This Morning.

The steamer Calvin Austin, Capt. Pike, arrived this morning from Boston direct and landed 552 passengers. This is the banner trip so far this season; the above does not include the children, of whom there were about 200. A passenger in conversation with a reporter stated that the heat yesterday was almost unbearable and the weather here is frigid compared with the heat in Boston.

The Austin also had on board seven trollers in charge of Driver Cox; nine others will arrive to-night. All for the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia circuit.

The steamer Camden also arrived at noon today and landed 133 passengers from Boston via Maine ports. They were landed at the Rupert wharf.

UNITED BAPTISTS HOLD CONVENTION

Number of Baptist Clergymen Passed Through Enroute to Hillsboro, Albert Co.

A large number of local Baptist ministers accompanied by some Fredericton delegates left at noon today for Hillsboro to attend the meeting of the United Baptist Association. The meeting opens tomorrow and continues Thursday. Those coming in at noon were Rev. Drs. Joseph McLeod and Dr. H. C. Creed, of Fredericton, and Harold Alexander, of Fredericton Junction. The members going from this city are Rev. J. W. Kirstead, Rev. A. B. Cobbe, Rev. W. W. McMaster, Rev. E. E. Bishop, Rev. W. Camp and Rev. E. Fletcher. Among the important questions to be considered, is the placing of the Home Mission work in New Brunswick under the control of the Maritime Conference. This work was under Maritime Conference control until about five years ago, when the N. B. Association assumed the control. It is now believed by many that the control should be handed back. It is expected that the matter will draw out a spirited debate.

WEDDINGS

Hamm-Sutherland

The home of Thomas Sutherland, Brookville, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday at 11 o'clock when the daughter, Flora May, was united in marriage to Stirling A. Hamm. During the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. G. Ganniver, the young couple stood under a large white bell suspended from an arch of ferns and white flags. The bride was prettily attired and carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Edith, who carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Little Miss Hazel Mortsey, as flower girl, was very sweet in a dainty dress of blue cashmere. The groom was supported by William Sutherland, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the guests adjourned to the dining room, where a dainty supper was served. The bride received many beautiful presents in silver, glass and china. The young couple will reside at 408 Main street.

Gilliland-Fleet

(Albany Journal). A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the Holy Innocent parsonage, when Miss Anna Fleet, formerly of Rensselaer, became the wife of Charles Gilliland, of Albany. The attendants were E. Edna Hart, of the niece, and Thomas Cleary, of White Plains. After a southern trip, Mr. and Mrs. Gilliland will reside at 360, Madison Avenue.

A QUIET CIRCUS.

With the possible exception of the Barium and Bailey and Hargreaves Shows the Cole Brothers' organization lead all other circuses that have played this city for a decade in one point at least, namely the absence of turbulent characters too connected with shows of this nature.

Irrespective of the refreshment vendors, were several promoters of illegal games who endeavored to induce apparently susceptible individuals to patronize their articles but whose efforts in the main were futile.

Owing to the vigilance of the circus staff of plain clothes men and the local police the pickpockets had a practically fruitless day. Sneak thieves were not much in evidence but one party succeeded in extracting ten dollars in small change from a cigar box in a refreshment booth while the proprietor was selling his wares. Two other petty thefts were also perpetrated one in the dime museum and the other in a lemonade booth. Tickets to the big show independently and who endeavored to extort an excessive sum from children for tickets as detected by the circus detectives and escorted from the grounds.

During the afternoon performance the employees who were at leisure, were the audience at an impromptu, entertainment of their own the special feature of which was a fight between a negro and a white man. Both principles were middleweights and although not proficient in the manly art were willing. The white was victorious by decision of the referee after a six round struggle for supremacy.

THE TABERNACLE PICNIC.

The Tabernacle Baptist church Sunday school picnic will be held at Crystal Beach on Tuesday, July 21st. The steamer May Queen has been engaged. Dinner and tea will be served on the grounds and there will be games and a generally enjoyable outing for all who can attend.
