MEETINGS HELD IN KNOX CHURCH

Presbytery of Continuing Church is in Session in City Today.

Reports From Miramichi and Other Parts—Geo. Robertson Made Treasurer.

The Saint John Presbytery of the Continuing Presbyterian Church, met in the school room of Knox Church this morning with Rev. W. M. Townshend, of St. Columba Presbyterian church, Fairville presiding, as moderator. Rev. R. Moorhead Legate was clerk and George Robertson was appointed treasurer of the Presbytery fund. Dr. Murray MacLaren, G. C. Lawrance, of Fairville, H. J. Gordon, of St. Stephen, Thomas Baker, of Woodstock, and John T. Clark of Fredericton were other lay members attending. Rev. Mr. Craise, of the Miramichi Presbytery gave an encouraging report of the work there.

Mr. Baker, of Woodstock complained that the people of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, which he represented, had been prevented from having a vote by the authorities of Church Union.

Rev. Finlay MacIntosh, organizer from the General Assembly for the continuing church in New Brunswick reported that the Miramichi presbytery was more prosperous than that of Saint John. He said that 28 churches had voted to remain Presbyterian and that 18 manses had been organized, which would give 35 congregations in all in that presbytery. He said that the outlook was good.

NEW CHURCH PLANNED

Mr. Clark reported for St. Andrews Church, Fredericton, which he said was already planning a new church. The members were holding Sunday services and were much encouraged with the outlook. It was reported that Stanley congregation had voted to remain Presbyterian by a large majority.

The clergymen present were Rev. W. M. Townshend, moderator; Rev. Mr. Moorhead Legate, clerk; Rev. W. J. Brittain, of St. Matthew's Church; Rev. Mr. Kay, of St. Martins.

The presbytery was to resume this afternoon with further reports to be received and for the consideration of routine business.

Funerals

George L. Evans.

The funeral of George L. Evans was held this afternoon from his late residence, Tower street, West Saint John, to Cedar Hill. Rev. Rural Dean W. H. Sampson, rector of St. George's church, conducted service at the house. The funeral was attended by many friends and beautiful flowers were presented.

Mrs. Daniel O'Hara.

The funeral of Mrs. Rebecca O'Hara, wife of Daniel O'Hara of Moss Glen, was held from her late residence to St. Bridget's church, Chapel Grove, for high mass of requiem by her nephew, Rev. Joseph O'Hara, C. SS. R., who also said the prayers at the grave. Interment took place at St. Bridget's cemetery, with her sons as pall-bearers. Many spiritual and floral offerings were presented by friends and relatives.

Employes Will Be Paid In Full

FREDERICTON, Aug. 11—Preferred creditors of the estate of Charles G. Baird, of Chipman, who recently made assignment in connection with his lumber operations at Yoho Lake, have already received 50 cents on the dollar and will soon receive the remaining 50 cents in full payment of their claims, according to a statement made by Mr. Baird.

The preferred creditors consist of mill-hands and others employed in connection with the operations, which were terminated when the estate went into bankruptcy under the assignment to Ernest A. MacKay, official receiver under the Bankruptcy Act. The loss of his mill by fire about a year ago was one of the contributing features culminating in the assignment. Operations were renewed with the construction of the mill.

It is expected that final settlement of claims of the remaining creditors of the estate will be made on a basis of 50 cents on the dollar.

No Canadian Bodies In Cemetries Moved

British United Press.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—It is learned at departmental headquarters here that there are no Canadian soldiers in the British cemeteries in France which are now being removed by the French authorities.

GOOD STUFF.

A panoramic photograph of upwards of 1,000 Odd Fellows and the ladies of Rebekah order assembled in the city at present will be taken in front of the Admiral Beatty Hotel tomorrow forenoon, weather permitting. It is to be used primarily as a convention souvenir but also as a boost for Saint John as a convention city. The Imperial movie man is going to "shoot" the party for Pathe's News Weekly, as well.

BEATTY FILLED

Its 184 rooms filled to overflowing with numbers of them holding more than the specifications call for, and twenty cots set up in the corridors, the Admiral Beatty Hotel reached its mountain-top of business last night. The Od dFellows' convention and general tourist traffic caused the jam.

ON AUTO TRIP.

Mrs. Harry Statton and family motored here from Beachwood, N. J., to visit Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Phillips, 89 Lansdowne avenue. The trip was made over the Mohawk trail and through the White Mountains of New Hampshire. An average of 200 miles a day was made possible, they report, by the excellent condition of the roads. The visitors expect to stay about ten days and will then return home by the coast route.

WAS AFIRE AGAIN

Salvage Corps men on guard at M. Jacobson's store, 615 Main street, where the fire took place last evening, discovered that the fire had broken out again this morning about 9.45 o'clock. A still alarm was sent in for the chemical engine but on the firemen's arrival they found that the flames had worked up through the building again along the same course as the night before and an alarm had to be sent in from Box 145. After about an hour's hard fight the firemen were able to return to their stations. Considerable additional damage was done to the property by the second blaze.

TWO BODIES FOUND IN TUG OCEAN KING

Last of Victims of Disaster at Quebec—Survey on Tug to be Held.

The two remaining bodies of the men lost in the disaster when the tug Ocean King was struck and sunk by the liner Marloch at Quebec on June 26 have been recovered according to word received at the office of the Saint John Drydock and Shipbuilding Co. Ltd. The bodies were found inside the tug after she was successfully beached at Beaufort flats. The bodies were those of A. Bernier, engineer, and O. Vezina, fireman, both of Levis, P. Q.

According to the report received the tug will be placed in drydock either today or tomorrow at Quebec to undergo a thorough survey.

New Keeper Negro; Sing Sing Surprised

OSSINING, N. Y., Aug. 11.—When Henry Quarles of 510 Classon avenue, Brooklyn, a newly appointed guard, appeared at Sing Sing prison with his credentials the officials discovered that for the first time in the history of the prison a negro had been selected as a keeper. Warden Lewis E. Lawes, as the law requires, appointed him from the civil service list of eligibles without knowing anything about his color.

Word of the new guard spread through the prison and caused much discussion. Warden Lawes decided that the guarding of white criminals by a negro might cause friction and assigned the new guard to work at night as a watchman outside the walls.

CONFERENCE IS UNDER WAY HERE

Sessions of Church of Christ Organization Held in Coburg Street

Historic Review of All Canada Movement is Given and Reports Submitted.

The conference of the Churches of Christ in Canada held its opening session in Coburg street church yesterday afternoon. On account of the unavoidable absence of some of the delegates who were delayed en route, the session was adjourned until the evening. A good attendance was present at the evening session and listened to encouraging reports and inspiring addresses. Miss Marion Royce, Young People's Worker in the department of religious education, gave an excellent report of her year's work, showing that she had in that time traveled 16,000 miles, given 274 addresses and conducted 17 conferences. Miss Royce will be one of the special speakers on Sunday afternoon.

HISTORIC REVIEW.

Hugh Kilgour, of Home Christian Church in Winnipeg, gave an historical review of the organization of the all-Canada movement, begun at a conference in Poplar Hill, Ont., in 1922, when members of the Churches of Christ throughout the Dominion had felt the need of closer co-operation between the churches of the East and West and had affected an organization and adopted a programme of Dominion wide evangelism and education. Rev. John H. Wells, in carrying out this programme, had just completed an evangelistic campaign in the provinces of Manitoba and Ontario and had begun a series of meetings in Nova Scotia. Walter Keeney was assisting as a singer and this team work was producing remarkable results. To aid in the campaign of the Disciples of Christ a new religious monthly was established in January, 1925. The title of the monthly, which is published at Toronto with Reuben Butchart as editor, is "Canadian Disciple."

AN ADDRESS.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Rev. Robert M. Hopkins, of St. Louis, Mo. As one of the leading secretaries of the United Christian Missionary Society of that city, in whose operations the Canadian Churches of Christ participate, he was able to point to large gains in missionary activity on the part of the Canadian churches.

THIS MORNING.

Encouraging reports were received at this morning's session of the conference.

Mrs. M. V. Romig, field secretary of the Women's Missionary Societies, is at her home in Winnipeg with a nervous breakdown, but she sent a report of her year's work by H. B. Kilgour. Her report showed an encouraging gain in new members of the various missionary societies also an increase in missionary giving.

J. H. Wells, evangelist, reported having held 15 meeting in 182 days, with 284 additions to the churches. Mr. Wells will speak again this afternoon and on Sunday. His singer, W. W. Keaney was introduced to the conference last evening and made a favorable impression. He has a fine tenor voice and pleasing personality. Mr. Keeney will sing at each session of the conference.

R. Butchart, editor of the "Canadian Disciple," reported growing interest in the new paper published by the brotherhood.

The session tonight will meet for a short song service at 7.45, led by Mr. Keeney, and the conference speakers will be G. I. Hoover of Indianapolis, Ind., and Grant K. Lewis of St. Louis, Mo.

FOUR ARE "FREED" BUT NEVER SERVED

Sentenced in 1919 For Offenses in Strikes, Are Rushed to Prison For Pardons.

CHICAGO, Aug. 11—It has been disclosed that four of six persons whose prison sentences, which grew out of strikes in South Chicago in 1919, were commuted last week by Governor Small, had not served a day in prison.

The group, which included Theodore Vind, former market master and former head of the South Chicago Trades and Labor Assembly, and a woman, Mrs. Emma Porter Pipes, had been at liberty with papers for their commitment to prison on a conspiracy charge lying dusty in the country records. County officers had reported that the four could not be found. Two others had served part of their sentences.

As a formality the four were rushed to the State Prison near Joliet, where they were formally released, their sentences having been commuted to end at once.

As a result of the commuting of the sentences, the Illinois Manufacturers' Association announced it was taking steps to arouse public sentiemnt "to a point that will compel the administrative officers of Illinois to allow the decrees of the court to stick."

IS CHARGED FOR GAS USED TO STEAL CAR

Man Thinks Its Bad Enough For Thieves to Strip Auto, But Rest is Limit.

CLIFTON, N. J., Aug. 11—Having your automobile stolen is bad enough, thinks Charles E. Fitchel of Oxford, but being charged for the gasoline with which the theft was made is about the limit.

Fitchel's automobile was stolen several days ago from a carnival grounds near here. Yesterday it was found, stripped of every useful part and good only for junk, in the woods near Easton, Pa.

Today, Fitchel received a bill from Coleman's garage here for 20 gallons of gasoline. He inquired and learned that two men had driven his car to the garage, the proprietor of which was familiar with the car and its owner, and informed Coleman that Fitchel had told them to stock up with gasoline. This they did, driving away at leisure. Now Fitchel has a worthless chassis on his hands and a bill for gas.

BLIND AFTER DRINK AT DANCE

Girl of 15 Found Unconscious on Cot in House Boat

Taken to New York Hospital and Partially Recovers Use of Sight.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11—Fifteen-year-old Helen McDonald was found by her parents in a ramshackle houseboat in Little Neck Bay, blind and unconscious from alcoholism, about 3 a. m. Some hours later, in Flushing Hospital, she had partly recovered her sight, but still was in a serious condition. She is the daughter of John McDonald, a clerk in the Brooklyn post office, who has a bungalow at Bayside.

The houseboat, which is aground in Little Neck Bay, forms the headquarters of the Bayneck Yacht Club, a small organization of youths of the vicinity, who have dances there. Helen went to a dance there about 10 p. m. with three other girls.

Found Unconscious in Room.

Her companions left the boat soon after midnight. Three hours later, when Helen had not returned, her parents went to the houseboat. It was dark and apparently deserted. Hearing heavy breathing on the second floor, they mounted the rickety stairs and found their daughter stretched out on an army cot, which formed practically the only furniture in the shabby room in which she lay.

They took the girl home, but were unable to revive her, and took her to the hospital in an automobile. Dr. Hosel, who attended her, said she was suffering from alcoholic poisoning. The police were notified and will have an analysis of the contents of the girl's stomach made.

Although able to say only a few words, she informed her mother that she had felt perfectly well until she took a drink from a glass containing some greenish liquid, after which she remembered nothing.

OPPORTUNITIES IN TRADE ARE TOLD OF

Extracts From Bulletin Issued at High Commissioner's Office in London.

Following are extracts from a bulletin issued from the office of the High Commissioner for Canada in London on July 30:

Clarence Jameson, Commissioner of the Civil Service Commission, Ottawa, has arrived in London, where he will study service affairs over here.

The first of the series of official volumes dealing with the History of the Canadian Forces 1914-1920 (History of the Canadian Medical Services of the Great War) published by the historical section, Department of National Defence of Canada, has been issued and copies can be obtained from the King's Printer at Ottawa or through booksellers.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.

The High Commissioner's office is informed by the Canadian Trade Commissioners in Great Britain that they have received the following inquiries for Canadian goods:

A London firm who claims an established connection among London wholesalers and retailers is desirous of effecting a connection with Canadian manufacturers of high class confectionery seeking an outlet.

A London company, already handling Canadian products, would be glad to hear from Canadian producers, and more especially those located in British Columbia and Western Canada, seeking an outlet for canned salmon, canned fruits and pulp, condensed milk, fresh fruits, butter, hides, casings and tallow.

A Liverpool company would be interested in receiving offers from Canadian exporters of poultry feathers, hog hair and horse hair.

A West of England house expresses their desire to be placed in touch with Canadian firms exporting food products of all kinds who wish to be represented in the south western counties of England.

A West of England firm of importers desires samples and quotations of Canadian fish meal with a view to exclusive representation for the West of England.

Further details of these can be obtained from the commercial intelligence branch of the Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, or from the Canadian Government Trade Commissioner, Canadian Building, Tralfalgar Square, S. W. 1.

ADOPTED GIRL IS LABELED FRAUD

Friend of Millionaire Foster Father Says She Staged Fake Suicide.

Canadian Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11—Mary Louis Spas today started to capitalize her brief experience as adopted daughter of Edward W. Browning, millionaire real estate operator, by writing her story for syndicate publication.

Meanwhile proceedings were scheduled in the Surrogate's Court at Jamaica for annullment of her adoption, on the grounds of fraud. Mr. Browning charges that she fooled him into believing that she was only 16, whereas written records show her to be 21.

CALLED FRAUD.

The Bohemian girl also was termed a fraud by Dr. Joseph F. C. Luhan, friend of Browning, who was with him when Mary Louise was reported to have attempted suicide last Friday night.

"It was a deliberate bluff," Dr. Luhan said, "she merely smeared her lips with poison and then locked herself in the bathroom crying, 'I want to die.' When I threatened to have her locked up as an attempted suicide, she screamed: 'No, no, I did not want to commit suicide.'"

CELEBRATE VICTORY.

Supporters of the Opposition party were the guests of G. A. Shepherd in the hall at Prince of Wales last evening when they celebrated their victory. About 300 Opposition workers were present and dancing was enjoyed. A large bonfire was also built in honor of the event. Refreshments were served by the ladies during the evening.
