Smart Mid-Season Hats

OF CREPE-DE-CHINE

Many New Models Showing for the First Time on Friday.

These smart hats have a jauntness in keeping with fur coats and large collars—and yet, you'll be able to wear them late into the spring.

Shapes are mostly small and close fitting and are covered with crepe-de-chine, or in some cases with satin or the new moracane. Allovers in heavy meshes are used to give colorful touches and draperies of Mah Jongg silk, featuring a blending of the rich shades of the Orient, are frequently seen.

Flat flowers clinging closely to brims; rhinestone ornaments, not too elaborate in proportions; and fascinating ribbon bows bring these newest hats in a class where you'll readily recognize them as being "decidedly new."

Best of it is—they're all very moderately priced.

W. ALEX. PORTER DIES SUDDENLY

Well Known Grocer Stricken in Hotel and Soon Passes Away

The sudden death of W. Alexander Porter, prominent grocer, who conducted a store at the corner of Union and Waterloo streets, was a great shock to his many friends who heard of it last evening. Mr. Porter had been down to his store attending to the fire in his store, after taking a hearty supper. He came to the Hotel Dunlop, where he resided, and after chatting with the men in the hotel lobby, he took his evening paper and went upstairs about 9.45 o'clock. In passing along the hall on the second floor, he waved to some friends and suddenly fell to the floor. Mr. Dunlop was called and also Dr. Mayes Case. Medical aid was fruitless, however, for Mr. Porter passed away. Horace Porter, coroner, was summoned and declared an inquest unnecessary. Death was due to heart disease.

The late Mr. Porter leaves three sisters, Misses Frances and Jessie Porter, at Hammond River, and Mrs. Edwin Duff, of Nauwigewank. Two brothers, David and John Porter, reside at Hammond River.

His nephew, David Arthur Porter, is one of a large number of the late Mr. D. R. Porter was at the Hotel Dunlop last evening, and telephoned the sad news to the sisters of the late Mr. Porter. Further details about the burial of their brother would be given to-day, they said.

Mr. Porter was a 28th degree Mason and also was a member of the Royal Arch Chapter, and the Master of the Hibernia Lodge, No. 8. He held a high place in the St. John encampment and was a member of L'Amor Temple of the Mystic Shrine. He was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, which he faithfully attended. Apart from a slight lameness, caused by an accident a few years ago, Mr. Porter seemed to be in perfect health.

He was born in Hammond River nearly 70 years ago and went into business for himself in Mill street at the age of 22. He later took up his long standing position on Union street, where he prospered greatly. He was unmarried and had apartments at the old Dufferin Hotel for many years, after living at the old Queen. He followed Mr. Dunlop to his new stand a few weeks ago.

As the news of his death spread his men friends assembled in large numbers at the Hotel Dunlop. Many of the Masonic friends were among them eager to do whatever could be done for the sake of one so much beloved by his friends. Comments were made of his kindness of heart and sincere regret expressed for the family.

On December 15 an assembly of friends met at the hotel and enjoyed giving Mr. Porter a birthday surprise party. Reference was made last evening to this pleasant function by several who were present at it and commented upon the apparently fine health of the friend who had just passed from this world.

Interment was in the new Catholic burying ground. The pall-bearers were James Curran, Daniel Reardon, Jr., Ralph Doyle and Dick Reardon. Mr. Reardon is survived by one sister, Mary; two brothers, John of Perry, Me., and Paul, of St. George.

Hon. Oliver S. Tarbox. Calais, Jan. 16—(Special)—Hon. Oliver S. Tarbox, aged sixty, died yesterday at his home at Red Beach. He was an ex-mayor of Calais, and a well-known granite manufacturer and held in high esteem.

John Campbell. St. George, Jan. 16—(Special)—The death of John Campbell occurred at his home in Canal District on Wednesday, Jan. 9, following a long illness of tubercular trouble. Mr. Campbell made a great fight for life and was for more than a year, confined to the County Hospital, East St. John, for treatment, returning home a few weeks ago. He was 51 years of age. His wife, who was before her marriage Ada McFeters, died about five years ago. He is survived by two sons, William E. of the Bank of Nova Scotia, St. John and Kenneth; also two daughters,

Alma and Josephine. Mr. Campbell was a highly respected citizen and deep sympathy is extended to the bereaved family. The body was taken to St. Mark's church on Thursday afternoon, where services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Leroy. Interment was made in the rural cemetery.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad For Washing Hair

Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is Multisil, coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonsful of Multisil is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisil. Beware of imitations. Look for the name, Watkins on the package.

This will be a 30-day cruise to the Caribbean Sea and will include stops at Havana, Kingston, Colon, Cartagena, Curacao, La Guayra, Port of Spain, Bridgetown (Barbados), Martinique, St. Thomas, Nassau and Bermuda.

One should never touch an electric switch while he has one hand in contact with a sink or other damp place.
