It is pointed out that the chief cause of trouble in the United States is the large amount of iliquor in bonded warehouses when prohibition went into effect. There were severely million again loss of whiskey alone. The grohibitionists asked the government to huse of the quantity has been withdrawn and disposed of legally or illegally, but about thirty million gallons remaints, and is a source of illeit supply. But as a whole the Congress that will exist after the coming election will be no less dry than the present one. Every evidence points to the likelihood of much more effective enforcement, amore solidified public sentiment in its favor, and the ultimate disappearance of the whiskey now in existence. Whiskey is the big factor. Other than whiskey is the big factor. Other than whiskey the amount of liquor now legally in existence is negligible."

Even in New York, where the law is notoriously violated, this testimony comes from one who has made a careful study of the whole situation for the Evening Post: "The ner result is that so far as the lower classes and the wage earning classes are concerned all the positive evidence is on the side of pro-

Prominent Citizen Writes of Skating Championships.

Commends Y. M. C. I. for Transfer to Rockwood Ice to Ensure Notable Meet in Canadian Classic and Calls for Strong Popular Back-

The decision to hold the Canadian Skating Championships on the picturesque saucer-floor of Lily Lake, Rockwood Park, sent thrill No. 2 through the sporting blood of the community. Next to securing of the "champs" sanction for to securing of the "champs" sanction for St. John nothing has roused speed lovers to enthusiasm like the promise of holding the races in God's good old out-of-doors on big ice, where every man's wind must be as good as his muscle and with a track large enough to eliminate speed tricksters and ensure a thorough test.

Since the lake was suggested as the scene of the races I have heard a lot of cene of the races I have heard a lot of bumptious ones say with knowing knods: "Fat chance they'll have of getting their expenses out athat place, everybody'll 'bum' their way in and see the show for nothing."

that demanded greater, freer scope. This was to be an all-Canada meet, not a little sport affair of our city-own. In fact there would be Yankees and possibly foreigners here to strive for our national laurels and if so we must make them fight for them under real Canadian con-
