TRIAL OF A C. P. R.

CONDUCTOR BEGUN

Montreal, Nov. 17—(Canadian Press)
—The trial of Wilfrid Boudreault, one of eight C. P. R. conductors charged with having misappropriated tickets and money received from passengers for fares, was begun here yesterday. He pleaded not guilty.

I de department of customs.

A correspondent of the New York Sun sent in the following translation of a Chinese rejection slip used in returning would-be contributions: "We have read thy manuscript with infinite delight. Never before have we reveled in such a mosterplece. If we printed it the authorities would ordain us to take it for a model, and henceforth never print anything inferior to it. As it would be impossible to find its equal within 10,000 years, we are compelled, though shaken with sorrow, to return your divine manuscript and for doing so we beg 1000 pardons."
