EXHIBITION STAFF MAKE PRESENTATION

Recker and Address to Superintendent Taylor From His Men

Charles W. Taylor, the genial superintendent of the exhibition grounds and buildings, was pleasantly surprised yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock by a large staff of men who had been working with Mr. Taylor during the exhibition, gathered in the main building and presented to him a handsome Recker and an address. Mr. Taylor thanked the men heartily for their remembrance and said that he was greatly satisfied with their work, and wished to see them all again at the next exhibition.

The following is the address presented: Charles W. Taylor, Superintendent of the Exhibition Buildings:— We the undersigned members of the exhibition staff for 1912 desire to show you our appreciation of your fellowship which has existed during the exhibition since it was opened. We endeavored to do the work allotted to us by you, and if we have done it to your satisfaction it has been through your willingness to assist us at all times. We trust that you may live long to enjoy the accompanying gift and that we will be your co-workers in many exhibitions to come.

HARRINGTON MAY BE ON MARATHON MOUND

Trying to Get Him in Double Battery of Brothers - Closing Games of Season

If the rain holds off the fans will have a chance to see the Halifax Socials and the Grecks in action again this afternoon. The game was to be called at 3:15 o'clock sharp. Winter was to do the leading for the Grecks, and War for the Socials. The teams will line-up, otherwise, the same as yesterday. Doc White, catcher, who has been playing with the Grecks this season, is through for the season and will return to his home in a few days. Chick Fraser is also through for the season and has left for home. The other players will hold on until the end of the week.

JEWISH NEW YEAR

Celebration of Important Festival to Begin This Evening

"Happy New Year" was the greeting being extended by the Jewish people throughout the world today to their kinsmen and friends, for this evening at sunset begins the feast of Rosh-Hashono, the first day of the month of Tishri, according to the Hebrew calendar. The feast corresponds with that of the Christian New Year, and will be solemnized with proper ceremony and pomp by the members of the Jewish fraternity in St. John and elsewhere. It is a time of accounting for one's past. The main idea underlying the observance is the restoration of the state of man in relation to his God. The feast is an important one in the eyes of the Jewish race. The festivities last for two days, during which business is suspended, and special services are conducted in the synagogues.

In the two local synagogues those of Carleton street and Hazen avenue, special services will be held. The pastor, Rev. Herman Benneboche, officiating in the latter place, while Rev. B. M. Amdur, formerly rabbi, at Hazen avenue, will conduct the ceremonies in Carleton street synagogue. This evening Mr. Amdur will deliver a sermon on "New Year's Greetings." On Thursday his subject will be "The Handshake of Friendly Foes," and on Friday he will speak on "Crimes of the Town."

Rabbi Benneboche will not preach any sermon this evening, but tomorrow morning at ten o'clock he will speak on "Charity," delivering the sermon in English. His subjects for Friday nights will be "Prayer and Repentance," and the sermon will be given in Yiddish. Large numbers are expected at all the services.

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

After the wedding the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents where a tempting wedding breakfast was served. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion. After breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher left on a honeymoon trip to Boston, New York and Niagara. On their return they will go to Bath where they will reside. The bride's going away dress was a corduroy suit with a Dutch blue waist trimmed with white gull's breast. Both the bride and groom received many handsome presents and the good wishes of a host of friends.

Garvin-Sullivan.

A pretty early morning wedding was solemnized last night at six o'clock in Holy Trinity church by Rev. J. J. Walsh, when he officiated at the marriage of Miss Annie E. McLaughlin, daughter of Thomas McLaughlin of Southwark street, and Maurice Garvin, a popular young coachman of North End. Many friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride was nicely attired in a costume of sapphire blue with a beaver hat to match, and carrying a bouquet of white roses. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Rae Sullivan, who, as bridesmaid, was prettily gowned in gold of cloth, with hat to correspond, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Harry Austin was groomsmen. A complete wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride after which Mr. and Mrs. Garvin left on a honeymoon trip through the Annapolis Valley and to Halifax. The bride's traveling gown was of champagne with white and blue. On their return they will make their home at 104 Metcalfe street.

They received many remembrances from a wide circle of friends, including many gifts of silver. Among those present at the ceremony were Miss Elizabeth Garvin of New York, Mrs. Charles deLoraine, and Miss Lucille Rielly of Newport, R. I.

Wetmore-Stevens.

An interesting nuptial event will take place this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Stevens, Metcalfe street, when their daughter, Miss Etienne May will become the bride of B. Cleveland Wetmore, formerly of Clinton, but now city salesman for W. A. Simms, Union street. The officiating clergyman will be Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, and the ceremony will be witnessed only by immediate relatives and friends. The bride and groom will be unattended. The bride will wear a pretty costume of sea blue silk with hat to match. She will be given in marriage by her father. After the ceremony luncheon will be served. Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore will leave on a honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia and on their return will make their home at 85 Albert street. The bride's traveling gown will be of navy blue with hat to correspond. Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore received many handsome and valuable gifts from numerous friends. The groom's present to his bride was a pearl pendant, while she received from her father a purse of gold.

Wilson-Burgess.

An interesting event took place in the Queen Square Methodist church at seven o'clock this morning when Arthur H. Wilson, of Fairville, was united in marriage to Miss Mabel Irene Burgess, daughter of the late Richard Burgess, of Fairville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilfrid Gaez, pastor of the church. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her brother, Geo. Burgess of Campbellton. She presented a charming appearance in a tailored travelling suit of navy blue with hat to match and carried a large bouquet of bridal roses. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left by the Prince Rupert for wedding trip through the Annapolis Valley. On their return they will reside on the Manawagonish road. The bride's traveling bag for the bridegroom was a handsome fitted travelling bag for the groom from the E. B. Blaxter Co., Ltd. The bridegroom's present to the bride was a beautiful set of mink furs.

Drake-Stewart.

The wedding of Thomas G. Drake, of the staff of the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company, to Miss Nollie E. Stewart, daughter of the late Andrew J. Stewart, took place at six o'clock this morning in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. On account of the recent bereavement in the bride's family the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. MacVicar, was very quiet. The bride was unattended and the only guests were the immediate relatives. The bride's costume was a grey-tinted suit and white hat trimmed with ostrich plumes, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Drake left by the I. C. R. for a tour of Quebec. On their return they will reside in St. James street.

Nae-Curie.

A very pretty wedding took place in Trinity church, St. John, at an early hour this morning, when the rector, Rev. R. A. Armstrong, united in marriage Miss Bessie R. Currie of this city, and Philip G. Nae, of Nerepis, N. B. The bride entered the church with her brother, A. Currie, who gave her away. She was attired in a pretty tailor-made suit of fawn whipcord with hat to match and was attended by her cousin, Miss Laura Eastwood, of Bedford, N. S., who was daintily gowned in white. The groom was supported by the Rev. G. Edwin Fowler, of Welsford, N. B. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Nae left on the steamer for a short trip to Boston, followed by the good wishes of a host of friends. Many handsome presents were received.

POLICE COURT

Two prisoners were arraigned in the court this morning, one charged with drunkenness and the other with wandering about the streets and not giving a satisfactory account of himself. The first was fined $8; William Harris, the second prisoner, told the court that he was on his way home between one and two o'clock this morning when he was arrested. He was remanded.

Herbert Belsa and John Leary were each fined $2 for allowing their horses to run at large in Carleton.

A case against H. B. Whitteck, charged with obstructing Rockland Road with a pile of lumber on which there was no lantern, was adjourned until tomorrow morning.

FOR THE PLAYGROUNDS

The ladies who conducted the tea room in the women's department of the exhibition on Saturday for the benefit of the Playgrounds Association have presented to the association the sum of $47.16. The total receipts were $56.16, and as most of the tea was distributed, expenses were only $9.08, leaving $47.08, of which $1.58 was added in small contributions, making the net total as stated. A large number of ladies aided in the work, and their great kindness is highly appreciated by the association.

APPOINTED TEACHER.
Miss Eleanor M., daughter of John J. Galbraith of Lorneville, has been appointed assistant teacher of the Lorneville school.

A HAT TO PLEASE EVERY MAN

Choosing a hat is not free from difficulties this season, especially if it is a soft hat; and every man wants at least one soft hat. There are so many styles, one is apt to be bewildered unless he is choosing from a stock which is the net result of the intelligent application of the process of elimination.

Our hats are right up to the minute, but there is not an overdone style, not a freak among them. We can exactly suit the man who requires an ultra fashionable soft or stiff hat, the man who prefers a semi-conservative style, or the man who wants "just what I have been wearing for the last five years."

Quality is a watchword here. The business is built on quality and service. A large number of the most particular men in St. John have helped us build it by their unwavering patronage.
