EVENING SESSION.

The Convention assembled at 8 p.m.

The President in the chair.

The Minutes of previous session were read and confirmed.

The President introduced to the Association Mr. Howland, who addressed the members on the subject, "Temperance in Public Schools."

Moved by Mr. Bryant, seconded by Mr. Spence, That a cordial vote of thanks be given by this Association to Mr. Howland for the excellent address we have listened to.—Carried.

On motion of Mr. Spence, seconded by Mr. Bryant, That in view of the appalling extent of the evils of intemperance, and the special dangers and temptations to which young people of the present day are exposed, this Association earnestly urges upon all the teachers of the Province the duty of persistently and carefully impressing upon
