COMMISSIONERS SIT IN SECRET SESSION

Reached-Hopeful Feeling in American Circles.

London, Oct. 12 .- The last stage of the Alaska boundary arbitration began this morning at the foreign office when the commissioners met in secret session to consider their verdict. United States Senator Lodge and Prof. Sir Louis Jette, one of the Canadian commissioners, were early on hand and Secretary Root and Senator Turner followed them into the cabinet room. where the deliberations are being held.

Then there was a long delay with some forebodings as Commissioner Aylesworth, of Canada, had not appeared. ally Chief Justice Alverstone asked one of the secretaries, who sut in an outer. room, to telephone to Commissioner erty since October 1st on behalf of an Aylesworth's hotel and find out the secret session commenced.

No decision is expected to-day While nothing can be known definitely a very hopeful feeling prevails in Am-erican circles. A significant reflection of this appears in the Times. Dealing with the difficulties encountered in the selec tion of a new British ambassador to the United States and the irritation which he would have to face both in Canada and the United States if the Alaska ribunal broke up with a disagreement the Times says: "We rejoice to say that there is be-upon or rather that seven questions may be so answered as to end the matter." The commissioners will sit daily from 11 a. m. until 1.30 p. m., when they will adjourn for lunch and will resume then deliberations at 2 p. m. adjourn ning for
