"Take Money Like Man."

The political complexion of the party calling itself "Liberal" in Northumberland just now is, of course, much colored by those who control it. It would be just as well to say that the main body is not composed of Liberals, for Northumberland—as the ADVANCE has always held—is a Liberal county. When it is known, however, that under certain auspicious circumstances, men who were not and never could be Liberals, managed to associate themselves with the party and by mutual and piratical conduct to disgust its leaders that they retired from it, there should be little wonder that everybody views the combination with distrust. It is in this view of the matter that the series of defeats the party has met with continuously since 1887 can be understood, and it is in the continuation of the same conditions that the danger of future defeats will lie. The only safety to the party that the future promises lies in its having the moral strength to throw overboard the Jonahs who came into it in 1887 and from that time began to work for its downfall. Almost everybody, excepting those most nearly opposed, appears to know where the trouble is. Outsiders know the difference between Mitchellism and Liberalism, and they cannot have the one imposed upon them for the other. At all events, such are the conditions the nearer one gets to party headquarters in the Dominion. If a man, in ordinary life, is known by the company he keeps, the inverse is true in political life, and the party may be justly judged by its leader. This is the measure taken of the leader of the so-called Liberal party of Northumberland by a newspaper which Mr. Parmalee, M. P.—the bosom friend of Hon. S. Fisher, Minister of Agriculture—is the editor. This paper says:—

The Liberator-Governor Fraser of New Brunswick died the other day at Genoa. He went abroad some months ago for his health. The Dominion Government will probably lose no time in filling the vacancy. Hon. Peter Mitchell is presenting his claims for the position. There is no doubt in the world that the Hon. Peter needs something, but it is a moot question whether the present Government, in its obligations to appoint him Lieutenant-Governor. The best years of his life were given to the service of the Conservative party. When Sir John Macdonald had no further use for him and threw him overboard, he fought his old leader to the end, but rather as a sorehead than a Liberal. He gloried in the title of leader of the third party, and glory must be confessed was about all he got out of it. After his country had rejected him, and he had become something of a political back number he sought the Conservatives to appoint him Lieutenant-Governor. The Conservatives are not built that way and they appointed John Fraser. To give the Hon. Peter credit, he was a force in Canadian public life for many years and it was perhaps the ablest Minister of Marine who ever served under Sir John Macdonald. When the latter treated him as he would a soaked orange he had courage and vitality enough to wage a vigorous but losing fight against his old leader. He was never a Liberal in the better sense of the word and never claimed to be, and had circumstances been different he would have been a good Tory, but in the faith, to the end of the chapter.

Such is the Waterloo Advertiser's estimate of the "Liberal" leader of Northumberland, and everybody who has observed the political course of Mr. Mitchell knows it is correct. Unfortunately for the party here, however, Mr. Mitchell's old friends and relations, who have believed it to be their duty and interest to follow him in all his windings, and to make men who ought to have had more sense and independence of thought turn to their way of thinking, have succeeded in keeping a charge of it, and although they and their converts are still doing so, they seem to imagine they will be accepted by the leaders in Ottawa as if in good party standing. If, however, their leader continues to be looked upon as a third party job, how can they expect full recognition? If he is a nondescript how can his followers be accepted as regulars of the brigade in the field? Let us not, therefore, wonder why they are kept outside "marking time."

What's in a Name?

Our Aldermen has an awkward way of putting things, sometimes. For instance, the Town has an excellent Amosack steam fire engine, which may already know as No. 1, the new Royal being, of course, No. 2. They might be officially distinguished in one or the other of these ways, but the Council is not asked to have the Amosack, or No. 1 engine overhauled, but "the old engine"—just as if that efficient machine, which has done the town such excellent and never-failing service and will no doubt continue to do so, was a candidate for the scrap-heap. It is, to me, think, also, that the use of proper designations in referring to streets, etc., were employed. Our streets have names, but some of the Aldermen seem to have no recollection of them. Hence, we have our own sidewalks described, not as running along a particular side of a street in a block easily designated by name, but from Tom's to Dick's, or Dick's to Harry's. For goodness sake, gentlemen, trace up and have some style about you!

A CUBA'S OPINION—A MAN OF MANY IDEAS—TOPICS OF THE DAY—THE HOLIDAYS, ETC.

A writing in the New York Times says that the most talkative of young men frequently becomes a mute or stutter, and asks for an explanation of the phenomenon. It might be said in answer that the wiser one is the more careful he is of his speech, which might be taken as an explanation; however, the cynic at my elbow says the young man, after a year at college, has generally forgotten all he ever knew, and therefore he has nothing to say. The cynic sometimes hits upon a great truth. Joseph Jefferson's early retirement from the stage is announced, "because of his many infirmities." The actor must smile at this item of intelligence which was probably put afloat by his business man as an advertisement. Last week he played seven nights in Baltimore, and seven speeches, formed the centre of one street procession, six special dinners, delivered one lecture, and on two or three occasions stayed up with "the boys" till 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning. Through Mr. Tobey of the Memorial Theatre the famous Massachusetts actor, during the month of November distributed among the poor of Boston 4,816 barrels of apples. The fruit was contributed without compensation. The thought of what they had done must have added to the favor of their doughnuts and cider on the evening of Thanksgiving day. Six steamers, two ships and four barques are due at this port during the present month. Dredge Froopert, which has been at work at Sand Point, sailed for Portland on Thursday. The tug Neptune will hereafter attend the port physician whose duties are many and arduous. The new steamer of the Star Line will be built on the lines of the Robshaw that plied on the river many years ago and belonged to Messrs. Linn & Sons. What will be done with the steamer St. Lawrence is about as uncertain as what will become of the Monticello. The Soberia-Cotwell breach of promise case has been settled by the payment of $250 costs by the defendant. As was expected, the young man charged with various libels & S. M. have been "honorably acquitted." Unfortunately, his best-motivated statement was not sworn to, and there was no other evidence against him. South Bay is firmly frozen over and it is daily visited by hundreds of skaters. There have been no drowning accidents this season, which is unusual. The liabilities of the St. John Bank and Not Works Co. are about $19,000; assets $30,000 to $40,000. The Charitable and Missionary Aid Society of the Church of England have arranged to send Christmas boxes to the country missions. Twelve deaths were reported in the city last week. There are now in port unladen three steamers, one ship, ten barques, two bargues, two brigantines and 51 schooners. Government steamer Lascowas is in winter quarters. Freight for shipping to London and Liverpool is arriving daily from the Northwest. Mr. Crookshank of this city took first prize for chrysanthemums shown at a recent fair at Springfield. A sports club has been formed in this city, the object of which is to promote an interest in floriculture throughout the province. Miss Mary Fallow, a daughter of the late James J. Fallow, was married in London last Thursday. The Salvation Army held a photograph service in Zion church last Friday evening. The house of Police magistrate Ritchie was gutted by fire on Friday morning. Loss about $2000, partially insured. There are now 100,000 bushels of wheat in the elevator here and the total receipts during the winter are expected to exceed 1,000,000 bushels. Ten immigrants, passengers by the Lake Huron, are stranded in this city. Over 200 patients in the Lunatic Asylum were treated to a concert by some of the city's most talented vocalists last Thursday evening. A most interesting case is before the circuit court in which Seligman & Arrington of London are the plaintiffs. The defendants, a city firm, are charged with selling an inferior tale representing it to be the same as Union Blend, which is handled exclusively in this market by George B. & Son, thus leading to a reputation built up at great expense and seriously injuring the credit of the plaintiff's goods. The case is likely to occupy several days. Mr. Pugsley's opening address for the plaintiffs was a masterly example of legal eloquence. Experts are unable to distinguish the Golden Fiddle put up by Centerville, N. S. from the best Scotch brands. They are cured, smoked and canned immediately after being taken from the deep waters of the bay and are noted for their delicate flavor and rich golden color. Their sale is controlled by Nathan & Co., but they may be ordered through any wholesale house. In holiday gifts everything is selling from a sealin' sock to a penny boy, and King Street is constantly thronged with purchasers. Dowling Brothers are offering some very extraordinary values in dress goods this month. This firm certainly admits the intelligence of the buying public for they never advertise ordinary values as something extraordinary. Everybody is aware that this is sometimes done. But this firm has by honorable means established confidence between itself and the public. The writer has noticed in their stock all the well-known dress goods worth 85 cents per yard for 49; mohair broadens worth 60 for 45 and fancy mixtures worth 60 for 39. They bought all their goods of each lot; when they're gone that ends it. St. John, Dec. 7.

Damon and Pythias

AS RIVALS FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP OF NEW BRUNSWICK. (Richmond Review.) Damon and Pythias in olden story were such friends that one was willing to die for the other. In sacred story the mutual love of David and Jonathan affords the parallel which most agrees the prospective gain or loss of a throne could break the bond. It was a hard test of Jonathan's friendship, but he seems not to have wavered, and succeeding ages have endorsed the plaudits of the poet. "Very pleasant had thou been content, O Brother Jonathan, Thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women." In New Brunswick public life a most striking friendship, long-continued and surviving one or more severe tests, has existed between McLean, of Albert and Gillmor, of Charlotte, rival candidates for the post of Lieutenant-Governor, and published by Dr. Beddoe in 1884. Mr. R. J. Hynes-Smith has continued the investigation in a complete manner in measurements 1400 men students, and the total number of individuals compared nearly 4000. The proportions of the head are as nearly alike in the different classes of persons as first glance over the data it appears that the average of the various races that have given rise to the present population have entirely fused together, but Mr. Hynes-Smith's evidence in the stature and the color of the hair and eyes is inconclusive. The Welsh are about 8 inch shorter than the English. They are also a lighter race, they weigh less, are less muscular, and have smaller breathing capacity. The English, however, about 7 inch shorter than the Scotch, weigh about 4 pounds less, and are less strong. The percentage of dark eyes varies considerably, being 34.76 among undergraduates from the west and southwest, and 27.14 among those from the east, only 15.38 among those from the southeast.

Urban Rebels Suddenly Appear and Capture a Town Two Miles from Havana.

A despatch of 5th inst. to the Boston Herald from Havana says: The situation here is very serious. The insurgents, some 6000, who have within the last week several times attacked Guanabacoa, which is directly under the guns of Morro Castle, yesterday made a bold dash and entered the town. The Spanish garrison was overcome and the Spanish troops were defeated and compelled to flee. The insurgents then began their work of destruction, and placed the torch in every direction, burning a large part of the city. The citizens are fleeing for their lives to Havana, or to the suburbs. The feeling here is one of great concern. Large bodies of troops have been dispatched by the government to dislodge the rebels. The firing of the combatants was heard here, and the sight of the red sky, showing the devastation that is in progress, struck terror into many hearts in the capital. The strength of the Solima that entered Guanabacoa is not known. If the rebels are victorious here, and the name of the leader they have not disclosed it. Guanabacoa is, next to Havana, the most important town in the province. It is located on a hill two miles across the bay from Havana, and is the seat of the high road, which connects both places.

In the Philippines.

A VENTURE OF TERROR PREVAILING IN THE PHILIPPINES. DETAILS OF A REIGN OF TERROR prevailing in the Philippines are contained in despatches received in the Colonies mail. The barbarous and unchristianlike acts are practiced by both the Spaniards and the natives, each seeming to endeavor to outvie the other in acts of cruelty. The story of the guerrilla warfare, which is now raging in the interior districts near Manila, is the most terrible. The Spaniards are now in a very bad way. The natives are almost as averse to work as the Spaniards. They have fasted for days, and are now in a state of starvation. They have been driven from their homes, and are now in a state of destitution. They are now in a state of rebellion, and are now in a state of anarchy. They are now in a state of chaos, and are now in a state of confusion. They are now in a state of disorder, and are now in a state of lawlessness.
