HARKINS TO START A THEATRE IN MONCTON Company Now Being Formed For This Purpose.

MONCTON, N. B., May 21—The annual meeting of the board of trade and the election of officers takes place this evening. The interest in the presidency contest has somewhat subsided, as during the canvass against the re-election of J. T. Hawke, by Mr. McDougall, local manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, it was found that a large number of business men who Mr. McDougall thought would support him, were supporting the former president for re-election. It is probable that there will be no contest for the presidency and Mr. Hawke will be elected for a third year.

EVERYTHING WAS LOVELY, BUT LET'S INVESTIGATE ANYWAY.

WANTS TO KNOW OF MISSING CLERGYMEN Whereabouts of Church of England Ministers Desired.

SECRETARY OF WOODSTOCK DEANERY SEEKING Information in Order to Complete His Records.

CANTERBURY STATION, May 21—The secretary of Woodstock Deanery, Rev. J. E. Flewelling of Canterbury Station, York Co., N. B., is desirous of knowing something about those clergymen who at one time officiated in the Deanery and whose names appear on his books as he wishes to mark "known to be dead" opposite their names if they are dead.

Following is a list of those who have signed the secretary's books in order: Alfred Horatio Weeks, known to be dead. Thomas Hartin, known to be dead. Thomas Neales, known to be dead. Leo A. Hoyt, in St. John. Jos. E. Flewelling, at Canterbury Station.

Mr. McRobbie then called for speakers, and the first to respond was W. H. Barnaby. He said one of our finest places of business was destroyed at mid-day, and it appeared to be unnecessary that such a great amount of damage should have been done with a fire department supposed to be a good one. It appears a pity that a meeting like this should be necessary.

Mr. McRobbie said he thought that the meeting resulted from remarks made in the paper, and from an item which appeared in a paper which quoted an old grand jurymen's views of the fire. In the first place in regard to the fire of June, 1877, at that time the chief was away from St. John and a foreman took charge, and the fire was caused by a man named Coleman, at Springfield. Bacon Hillcock, present address unknown.
