

who shall hereafter be elected from time to time by the Diocesan Synod of Nova Scotia, and shall be members of that Synod at the time of their election. Such additional Governors so to be elected, shall hold office for four years and shall go out of office alternately, and one of such Governors, shall be elected at each regular biennial session of the Diocesan Synod of Nova Scotia. Until such election can take place, J. Norman Ritchie and Charles James Stewart of Halifax, Esquires, who have been nominated by the said Synod for the purpose at its last session, shall be and they are hereby appointed, Governors of King's College, Windsor; the said Charles James Stewart to continue in office until the session of said Synod in 1884, and the said J. Norman Ritchie until the session of said Synod in 1886. In case of the death or resignation of any of said additional Governors, the vacancy shall be filled at the next ensuing session of the Diocesan Synod of Nova Scotia, and the Governor then elected shall hold office for the residue of the term of four years.

[“In all cases the out-going Governor may be re-elected, if then a member of the Synod.” Journal of the 10th session, 1882, of the Diocesan Synod of N. S., p. 82. See sec. 4 below].

2. Whenever and so soon as the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton shall by resolution declare King's College at Windsor to be the college approved by said Synod for the education and training of the divinity students of the diocese of Fredericton, the Governors of King's College, Windsor, may by resolution, duly passed at a meeting called for that purpose, still further increase their number by the addition of three more Governors, one to be the Lord Bishop of Fredericton for the time being who shall then be ex officio a Governor of King's College, and the remaining two to be elected from time to time by the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton in such way and for such term as the said Diocesan Synod may from time to time limit and appoint, and to be members of that Synod at the time of their election. But if at any time thereafter the approval and support of the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton should be withdrawn from King's College, or the divinity students of that Diocese should cease to attend said college, the persons so elected by the Synod of that Diocese, and also the Bishop of Fredericton, shall thereupon cease to be
