

MOUNT ALLISON
Ladies' College and Conservatory of Music.

PRINCIPAL:

THE REV. B. C. BORDEN, D. D.

The attention of the friends of female education is invited to the Mount Allison Ladies' College with a confidence proportioned to the successful history it has already achieved.

Courses of study extending from the Elementary English branches to and through the whole University Curriculum to the degree of M. A. are open to all the students of this Institution. Young ladies wishing to pursue a University Course can here do so while enjoying all the social advantages and safeguards of the Ladies' College, and at the same time obtain instruction in Music, Elocution, and Fine Arts.

The CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC, recently opened, is under the charge of a gentleman of the very highest rank in his profession, aided by accomplished teachers. It is provided with an admirable suite of rooms adapted to the Conservatory system. Superior new Pianofortes, both for instruction and practice, are furnished. The Fine Arts Department has been reorganized and enriched by the acquisition of the celebrated Owens Art Gallery paintings, and is under the charge of Prof. John Hammond, R. A. C.

A course of instruction in SHORT-HAND and TYPE-WRITING has been established with a design to meet the needs of those who wish to fit themselves for employment in business offices.

All departments of instruction will be maintained in the very highest state of efficiency, and no pains will be spared to prove the Institution worthy of the public confidence and favor so generously and continuously expressed.

Catalogues containing full information supplied on application to the Principal. Students admitted at any time.
