Thought She Would Go Mad WITH HEADACHE.

In all cases of headache the treatment should be directed to remove the cause, for with the cause removed the headache vanishes for all time. Headache powders just relieve for the time being, but what is necessary for a permanent cure is something that will go right to the seat of the trouble. For this purpose it is impossible to find a better remedy for headaches of all descriptions than Burdock Blood Bitters, acting as it does on every organ of the body to strengthen, purify and regulate the whole system.
Mrs. Althea Bowman, Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I have suffered terribly with my head for weeks at a time till I thought I would go mad. A friend advised me to give Burdock Blood Bitters a trial, so I got a bottle and found relief. I have used four bottles in all and I am glad to say that I have had no more headaches since. I would advise all sufferers to give it a fair trial."

THE LOS OF THE GRETA.

Captain Berryman and crew of the wrecked schooner Greta reached here on Saturday evening from Boston via Yarmouth. The men had a terrible experience in the late severe storm off the American coast. The schooner was partly dismantled and waterlogged, and at times the men had little hope of saving themselves. Eventually all hands were rescued by the barge and landed at Vineyard Haven. Thence they proceeded to Boston and were taken to Yarmouth by the British consul. The men lost all their effects. The captain personal loss was about $150. There was not time to save the ship's papers. The seamen are looked after by the Salvation Army, waiting to hear from the owner of the Greta, Mr. Powell, of Dalhousie.

IMPERIAL THEATRE HAS BUMPER BILL

Big House Crowded at all Performances Yesterday—Vaudeville Turn up to the Minute.

George Elliot's English novel "Silas Marner" was the feature picture story at the Imperial yesterday. The scenes were nicely portrayed and the big audiences at the performances yesterday were very appreciative in their acceptance of the story. Another picture of unusual interest was an exciting bull fight in France. This shows about a dozen matadors playing with a large bull. The agility and acrobatic stunts of the men as they were chased by the infuriated beasts seemed simply wonderful and it seemed a miracle that they were not injured. All the objectionable features of the bull fight have been eliminated from these pictures.

"An Expensive Shoe Shine" was filled with mirth. It showed the manner in which an heiress hid her jewelry from robbers. Everyone in the house was convinced that shoes make a very poor substitute for safety deposit vaults.
"An Hour in Dublin" was a fine travel study and showed to the people in the big house the intimate life of people in the Irish city. Pigs, ducks, geese and hens were much in evidence and all interested in live stock should see this picture today.
Miss Gertrude Ashe was heard in another of her pleasing vocal selections and her song was heartily enjoyed by every present.
The Cabaret Boys pulled off a breezy singing and dancing act that was quite mirthful. The boys capered in a pleasing manner and their songs and jokes were refined and up to the minute in time.
The same bill will be presented to day.

TORONTO POLICE IN A QUEER PREDICAMENT

Toboggans Forbidden on Sabbath, People use Improvised Sleds—Accidents Result.

Toronto, Jan. 18.—The Toronto police force were placed in an awkward position yesterday in reference to the city by-law prohibiting the use of the toboggan slides in the public parks. The slides are in prime condition just now, and yesterday thousands of people thronged the parks instead of regulation sleds and toboggans, board and sheets of tin were used by the merry makers. There were a number of serious accidents, but the police were unable to prevent the public from using the park, and did not know where to start in making arrests; consequently they did nothing. If the slides had been officially open they would be properly regulated, and could be used with much less danger than under the existing circumstances.

"We are only little ones, but we know Zam-Buk eased our pain and cured our sores. Perhaps it would cure you, too, if you tried it?"

Isn't this sound advice from "babes and sucklings"? Take it! The speakers are the children of Mrs. E. Wehner, of Seignosse, St. Montreal, and the mother adds weight to their appeal. She says: "My little girl contracted scalp disease at school. Bad gatherings formed all over her head, and not only caused the child acute pain but made her very ill. The sores discharged, and oozing on the scalp we feared she would lose all her hair. She was in a pitiable plight when we tried Zam-Buk."

Zam-Buk is "something different" in the way of healing. It contains powerful healing herbs, which, as soon as applied to skin diseases, kill off the germs and the painful smarting. Other sores contained in Zam-Buk so stimulate the cells that new healthy tissue is speedily formed. Eczema, itch, sores, sold sores, abscesses, festering sores, blood poisoning, chronic wounds, cold cracks, etc., are healed and cured in this way. Use it for all skin injuries and diseases. It is also of great value in treating dandruff and itches at 50 cents box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

THE WOMAN IN WHITE

NT UNIQUE THEATRE

Feature Picture Draws Big Audiences at each Performance—Good Comedy Lightens Bill.

Featuring in its programme for the opening of the week a strong society drama well portrayed on the moving picture screen. "The Woman in White," the Unique Theatre opened yesterday with an attractive bill which was greeted with capacity houses at each performance. The complete programme presents the best work in moving picture productions and is an exceptionally good offering.

"The Woman in White" is a production in moving pictures of "Wilkie Collins' popular drama, and in being given to the public in the moving picture screen it has lost none of the attractive qualities which the drama play introduced in two reels, by an aggregation of the best motion picture actors.

The plot of the motion play hinges on the escape of a girl inmate from a private insane asylum, and is centered about her relations with a former companion. How the rich heiress is forced into marrying an impostor and the demoralized girl is secretly done away with is most interestingly described in the picture. In itself the picture is good, but with the superb acting and scenic effects it is something out of the ordinary.

The comedy of the bill is furnished in a ridiculously funny picture, "Two Men and the Mule," which is just one continuous stream of fun from start to finish. This gives the programme balance, and completes a show of rare quality.

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Stories Here Told.

Edmonton, Alberta, Can.—"I think it is no more than right for me to thank you for what your kind advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have done for me.

"When I wrote to you some time ago I was a very sick woman suffering from female troubles. I had organic inflammation and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed, and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have never been without the medicine in the house."

Beatrice, Neb.—"Just after my marriage my left side began to pain me and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an operation. I heard of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was doing for others and I used several bottles of it with the result that I haven't been bothered with my side since then. I am in good health and I have two little girls."
