Loggieville, June 25.—This town was not exempted from the cold wave which recently swept the province in general. Many gardens here were destroyed and much replanting will be necessary. Serious damage has been done to many of the tender vegetables. In some cases even potatoes were badly scorohed. Gardens which escaped uninjured from last week's frosts, are looking well.

The day of humiliation and prayer which has been planned for the 30th inst, in the Dominion, is being very specially arranged for in Knox church here. The special afternoon services promises to be one of a most unique nature. The service is to be shared in by all the church organizations.

The registering officials were kept busy on the 22nd, although many of the citizens received their receipts move of the citizens received their receipts move of the citizens received at obtawa until noon, on Fridanty of the contract from last week's frosts, are looking well.
