Literary and Musical Entertainment. The Institute, last evening, was filled to its utmost capacity, the occasion being the annual entertainment of the Father Mathew Association. After some excellent music by the Christian Brothers' Band, Mr. J. O'Brien, on behalf of the Association, addressed the audience, thanking them for past favors and for their liberal patropage on that particular evening. He spoke at considerable length on the rapid growth of the Association, what it had accomplished and what they hoped to do in the future.

A destructive fire is reported at Greenville, Pennsylvania. At last accounts thirty buildings were destroyed, and the The piano duet of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. D. fire still raging. Landry was well executed. The tenor solos of Mr. James Guthrie were fine. The readings of Mr. J. McWilliams were well selected and well rendered. The song of Mr. J. Sullivan received much praise. The one act comedy, "The Smoked Miser," by several members of the Association, was a very creditable performance. The gems of the evening, however, were the soprano solo of Miss Coholan and the duet by Mrs. Doherty and Mr. James Guthrie. The recitation of Mr. Duffy was well rendered. The alto solo of Mrs. Landry elicited much applause.

A careful estimate of the number of persons at Chiselhurst yesterday fixed it at 60,000. Many stores in London and throughout the country were closed while the funeral procession was moving. While the Prince Imperial was returning from the chapel to the family mansion he was saluted with the cry of "Vive I Empereur." In reply to the salutation he exclaimed, "The Emperor is dead; Vive la France." Advices from Zanzibar to the 30th of November state that letters had been received there from Unyanyembe, announcing that the expedition with supplies for Livingstone, sent forward by Stanley, had reached him, and that he had again started for the interior of Africa on the 18th of solos of Mr. James Guthrie were fine. Reported Murder. The Moncton Times gives currency to a report of a murder on the Intercolonial Railway. The story comes from Richibucto and is. " That a man kept a public house up at the railroad: another man entered, and the two got drinking and quarrelling; their dispute ended in the keeper of the house striking the other with an axe several times, resulting in death shortly after They were both strangers.'

Fatal Accident. About three o'clock yesterday afternoon a sad accident, resulting in the death of who was about 16 years of age, was in the fourth story of the building, about forty feet from the ground, assisting his father b) handle some bricks, when losing his halance he fell backward through a hatchway to the ground flat. He was picked up 90; new fives 894. insensible and conveyed to the office of Drs. Steeves & Allison, when it was found his skull was fractured. His injuries were pronounced fatal, and he was conveyed to his home in Waterloo street, where the last rites of the church were administered Afterlying insensible until half past ten at night he died,
