London, July 14. Heavy rain, accompanied by lightning, swept over Yorkshire yesterday. Reports from various points state that the crops were greatly damaged, and several persons killed by lightning.

Two cars were thrown from the track of the St. Louis and South Eastern Railroad on Saturday. Fifteen persons were wounded.

MILITARY DESPOTISM FOR FRANCE. A Paris correspondent reports McMahon as saying to him that he accepted the Presidency of France to save the army and rescue the Government from a hideous war for power and gain.

THE MURDERERS OF CHARLES GOODRICH. Kate Stoddard yesterday sent for the morning papers and read through every account of the inquest, and afterwards attended services in the jail chapel, then read her Bible, and subsequently began writing out a detailed account of her conversation with Goodrich from the beginning to the end.

THE REMAINS OF A WOMAN EATEN BY RATS. The finding of Miss White's rat eaten body in 8th street occasioned no little excitement in the neighborhood. The intolerable stench coming from the house first led the neighbors to institute search. She owned considerable real estate, and had lived entirely alone, being occasionally visited by her nephew and a few other persons.

THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT. There was an interesting debate in the House of Peers last evening on a motion for a committee to consider what legislation is needed to check the tendency toward Romanism in the established church.

REPORTED CONFLAGRATION. A report has been received in London that a conflagration was raging at Amsterdam.

NEW YORK, July 15. In Baltimore Harbor, yesterday, a small capsized boat with seven young men, four of whom were drowned.

WALLACE TOWN, Canada, was visited yesterday by a hurricane and rain storm, doing great damage.

Teachers' Institute. The Superintendent of Education convened his Teachers' Institute yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, about two hundred teachers being present. It was opened by a short address from Mr. Board, in which he stated the object and aim of the gathering, and introduced Prof. Munro, of Boston, who at once commenced his duties as instructor in vocal and physical culture.

Subscribe for the DAILY TRIBUNE, and have it delivered at your residence every afternoon. A sneak thief has been in the habit, recently, of stealing milk and other things from a cellar in Pitt street. He was seen this morning walking out with a roll of newspapers under his arm, and acted so coolly that he was supposed to belong there. He will be caught.

Honesty is the best policy in medicine as well as in other things. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a genuine preparation of that unequalled spring medicine and blood purifier, decidedly superior to the poor imitations heretofore in the market. Trial proves it.
