Book Room Bonds.

These BONDS, which were issued about five years since to our Ministers for advances, which they had made to help in carrying on the business, matured on 1st JULY last. The Book Steward regrets that, in consequence of the great stringency of the times, arrangements could not be made to take them up at that time, or this year.

They will, however, be taken in payment of Accounts in either the Look Room or Wesleyan Office, or for Books at Net Cash prices, or for advance payments for New Subscriptions for the "Wesleyan." A year's interest will be paid on the 1st of July next on any of these Bonds which may then be still outstanding.

METHODIST BOOK ROOM

125 GRANVILLE STREET.

To an extensive stock already on our shelves, we are expecting to add in a few weeks a large number of volumes from English and American

These we are now marking at prices nearly, if not quite, as low, as books were sold previous to the passage of the new tariff, by which the expense of importation was largely increased. Special attention is called to the Sabbath School Libraries advertised in another column, and to our general Sabbath School stock. We are persuaded that our Sabbath Schools, by ordering from us, will not only provide themselves with such books as they ought to have, but will obtain them at the lowest possible rate.

As but a few copies of any new book can be kept on hand, orders should be forwarded early If the books ordered should not be in stock, they will be obtained by the carliest opportunity.
