

vantage to the West India and South American trade from the construction of the Canal, would be largely indirect and incidental.

"Question 2.—The extent of the existing trade with these ports and its probable prospective increase."

EXPORTS from Ontario for the year ending 30th June, 1874, of its Growth, Produce and Manufactures :

To the British West India Islands,.....	$6,785 00
" " Spanish " " " .....	629 00
" South America,.....	26,409 00
	<hr/>
	$33,823 00

EXPORTS from Quebec for the year ending 30th June, 1874, of its Growth, Produce and Manufactures :

To the British West India Islands,.....	$255,197 00
" " Spanish " " " .....	2,192 00
" South America,.....	967,615 00
	<hr/>
	$1,225,001 00

EXPORTS from Prince Edward Island, for the year ending 30th June, 1874, of its Growth, Produce and Manufactures :

To the British West India Islands,.....	$29,587 00
---	-------------

EXPORTS from New Brunswick, for the year ending 30th June, 1874, of its Growth, Produce and Manufactures :

To the British West India Islands, .....	$ 63,612 00
" " Spanish " " " .....	459,556 00
" " French " " " .....	2,380 00
" South America, .....	77,375 00
	<hr/>
	$602,923 00

EXPORTS from Nova Scotia, for the year ending 30th June, 1874, of its Growth, Produce and Manufactures :

To the British West India Islands,.....	$1,603,752 00
" " Spanish " " " .....	783,994 00
" " French " " " .....	369,629 00
" " Danish " " " .....	62,809 00
" " Dutch " " " .....	3,869 00
" British Guiana,.....	177,756 00
" Other Islands,.....	140,214 00
" South America,.....	16,543 00
	<hr/>
	$3,158,566 00