

STEAM FITTERS.—See evidence of, * * * Toronto, 28.

STOCK RAISING in Enniskillen, R. Brock, 732. In the vicinity of Petrolia, J. W. Crosby, 702. See also CATTLE RAISING.

STONE.—Kinds used in Ottawa for building purposes, M. Shields, 1122.

STONE CUTTERS.—See evidence of John Lane, Ottawa, 1123. M. Shields, Ottawa, 1122. W. Stuart, Jr., Ottawa, 1108. F. Thornton, 407, 408.

STONE MASONS.—Hugh Douglas, Kingston, 1035. J. M. Green, St. Thomas, 539. J. C. Johnston, Cornwall, 1078. W. Stuart, Jr., Ottawa, 1108. Stone mason's work done by marble cutters at Windsor, F. Thornton, 407. Geo. White, Cornwall, 1088.

STREET CAR EMPLOYEES.—Drivers' strike in Toronto, A. Blue, 78. See evidence of J. J. Franklin, Toronto, 328.

STREET CAR FARE.—An expense necessitated by the distance of the workingmen's homes from their work in Toronto, Mayor Howland, 169.

STREET CAR SYSTEM.—Hopes to see it under the control of the corporation in Toronto: reasons therefor, Mayor Howland, 169.

STREET WAIFS.—Their disadvantages and what should be done for them, L. P. Kribs, 202, 203.

STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS AND THEIR RESULTS.—Workmen always suffer most from them, * * * , Toronto, 67. The strike of the Toronto plumbers the cause of an increase in steamfitters' wages, * * * , Toronto, 29. Never had a strike in his business and thinks they might be avoided by mutual interchange of opinion between employer and employees, John Bertram, Dundas, 857. Strikes more frequent in towns where labor is not organized than where it is, J. J. Bickley, Cornwall, 1084. Strikes in Ontario, A. Blue, Toronto, 78. Effect of strikes on trade, John Callow, Seaton Village, 53. B. M. Danforth, Hamilton, 762. Prevention of strikes one of the chief objects of the Independent Labor Union, John Falconer, Toronto, 8. Opinions of the Hamilton Iron Moulders' Union regarding strikes, 797. Geo. Harper, Hamilton, 748. Thinks a labor bureau would be a good thing to use in settlement of disputes between labor and capital, John Robinson, St. Catharines, 921. Police protection granted to employers in case of a strike, R. Southwell, Toronto, 242. Strikes mostly caused by the importation of foreign labor, Thomas Stewart, Ottawa, 1192. The opinions of E. A. Card. Taschereau, Arch. of Quebec, regarding, 368. Thinks authorized arbitration would tend to reduce the number of strikes, A. W. Wright, Toronto, 321.

STRIKES among Agricultural Implement Makers at Chatham last summer for shorter hours, R. G. Fleming, Chatham, 437, 438.

AT THE BOOT AND SHOE FACTORY of J. D. King & Co., Toronto, R. C. Winlow, 338.

AMONG BOXMAKERS.—H. Burke, Toronto, 263.

AMONG CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS.—Toronto, H. T. Benson, 268. R. Dennis, 120, 122, 126, 132. John Falconer, 4, 5. R. Lee, 140. H. Lloyd, 235, 239. London, Thomas Green, 646. John Hayman, 636, 637, 638. John Sullivan, 679, 682. Ottawa, O. Labelle, 1160. Windsor, T. M. White, 394.

AMONG CARRIAGEMAKERS.—John Dixon, Toronto, 249.

AMONG THE CHATHAM WORKINGMEN.—G. S. Hope, 462. E. S. Spashett, 469.

AMONG CIGARMAKERS.—The cigarmakers of London belonging to the Union did not strike but were locked out previous to being blacklisted, S. M. Hodgins, 650.